NEW BRUNSWICK'S CLEAR VERDICT

Government of Hon. J. K. Flemming Wins 40 Seats in Yesterday's Election—Only Two Opposition Returned

PREMIER LEADS POLL IN CARLETON

Heavy Majorities in Nearly Every Riding—Two Independent Conservatives Win Seats in Northumberland

ST. JOHN, June 20.—The provincial elections today resulted in practically a clean sweep for the government, only two opposition men, Dugall and Pelletier in Madawaska, being elected. In Northumberland, where three independent Conservatives ran against the government ticket, two of them were elected. In St. John city, York and Sudbury counties, the opposition candidates lost their deposits. A. B. Copp, the opposition leader was badly defeated in Westmoreland.

Premier Flemming headed the poll in Carleton. The results of today's voting gives the government forty seats, the independents two, and the opposition two. Gloucester polling takes place on Monday.

The results in detail follow:

Northumberland—Allan (Govt.), 2875; Hon. John Morrissey (Govt.), 2354; Stewart (Ind. Cons.), 2058; Doyle (Ind. Cons.), 2000.

Queen's county—Woods and Slipp (Govt.), elected 425 majority.

St. John City—Wilson, Tilley, Lockhart and Grannan (Govt.), elected by 2000 majority.

St. John county—Baxter and Carson (Govt.), elected by 500 majority.

Charlotte—Grimmer, Clarke, Taylor, Guptill (Govt.), elected by 900 majority.

Kent—Landry, Bourque, Sheridan (Govt.), elected 500 majority.

Kings—Murray, Jones, Dickson (Govt.), elected 700 majority.

Carleton—Flemming, Munro, White (Govt.), elected 600 majority.

Westmoreland — Black, Humphrey, Melanson, Mahoney (Govt.), elected 500 majority.

Moncton City—Price (Govt.), elected 300 majority.

York—McLeod, Pinder, Young, Morehouse (Govt.), elected 2000 majority.

Sunbury—Gasler, Perley (Govt.), elected 300 majority.

Albert—Prescott, Dickson (Govt.), elected, majority not given.

Victoria—White, Carter (Govt.), elected about 100 majority.

Madawaska—Pelletier, Dugal (Opp.), elected 600 majority.

Restigouche — Stewart, Colligan (Govt.), cleared 400 majority.

A MALICIOUS STORY

Facts As to Hon. George H. Perley's Nationality, Often Stated, Are Again Being Misrepresented

OTTAWA, June 20.—Sundry Liberal newspapers are printing a nefarious story originating from Ottawa to the effect that Hon. Geo. H. Perley, the acting premier, is an American citizen, never having been naturalized. The facts are these:

Mr. Perley's father, the late Mr. W. G. Perley, in 1857 left New Hampshire and settled in Ottawa. He came to this country before Mr. Perley's birth, and became a British subject, and for a time was member of parliament for Ottawa city. He did not move his family to Ottawa at once, and the present minister was born in New Hampshire, soon after his father's removal to Canada, and was brought to Ottawa when an infant.

Under the naturalization act of 1881, however, it was necessary for him to be naturalized. He took his papers on December 26, 1885, and the papers were filed on December 29, 1885. It thus is true that he has been naturalized, and false that he has omitted to take this step. What makes the assertions now being spread about wear an air of malice in the fact that the assertion has been made, and has been disproved in past years in this vicinity. When Mr. Perley in 1900 contested Russell, now represented by Hon. Charles Murphy, this story was circulated about him, and was met and proved incorrect.

DOUBLE TRACKING CANADIAN PACIFIC

TORONTO, June 20.—Contracts for the double tracking of five hundred and fifty miles of the Canadian Pacific railway from Sudbury to Port Arthur were awarded today to Deaks and Hinds of Toronto. The work will be done this year and will cost ten million dollars.

DR. BEATTIE NESBITT

Ex-President of Farmers' Bank Is Committed for Trial

TORONTO, June 20.—Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, who was committed for trial today on charges of fraud in connection with the Farmers' bank, leaves tomorrow for his home in Muskoka. He will return to the city on Tuesday or Wednesday to give evidence before the royal commission investigating the failure. The adournment set for Saturday has been postponed to next week.

State-Aided Immigrants

IMMIGRATION TO BE DISCUSSED

Hon. Robert Rogers to Go to England on Business Connected With Department of Interior

Ottawa, Ont., June 20.—The Hon. Robert Rogers, mnister of the interior, will leave for England at the end of July on business directly concerned with his department. Questions dealing with immigration are continually cropping up and the minister believes that personal interviews and a survey of the situation at close range will go far to solve outstanding problems. Mr. Rogers will remain in the west until after the visit of H. R. H. the Governor General, who will be in Winnipeg early in July.

The departure of Mr. Rogers will make the fourth minister, headed by the prime minister, to cross the seas on imperial questions.

FOOLISH ATTACK

Liberal Newspapers Forget That Late Government Lowered and Raised Tariff by Order-in-Council

OTTAWA, June 20.—The Liberal newspapers which are attacking the Borden government for making slight changes in the tariff by order-in-council, either have short memories or think their readers have.

Precisely similar changes were made yearly by the Laurier government. The customs act was framed by the Laurier government expressly so as to make this possible and that government availed itself fully of this permission. These were all in the direction of reductions.

Another case is on record where the Liberal government made a heavy increase in the tariff by an order-in-council. On August 27, 1904, the governor-in-council decreed that as it was established that steel rails of the best quality, suitable for the use of Canadian railways, were being manufactured in Canada, from steel made in Canada, a duty of $7 per ton should be imposed on all iron and steel railway bars, or rails in any form for railways.

LOSS OF MEMORY

U. S. Lawyer Found in London Hospital After a Disappearance of Three Years

LONDON, June 20.—Luther Maynard Jones, former law partner of the late William C. Whitney and first secretary of the Yale Alumni association, was found today in the Streatham infirmary after a disappearance of three years, due to the loss of memory caused by an abscess on the brain.

Mr. Jones came here several years ago in connection with an important lawsuit, but was compelled to give up practice owing to brain trouble. He afterwards became a noted antiquarian. Mr. J. R. Quain, of Ottawa, Canada, a life long friend, found Mr. Jones today as a result of a year's search.

Fatality in Runaway

EDMONTON, Alta., June 20.—A young teamster named William Upton was instantly killed while driving his team on the South side. According to witnesses the lines of the team dropped down between the tongue of the wagon and the horses, and the unfortunate man got on the tongue to pick them up, but in so doing scared the horses.

CHILD VICTIMS OF CANAL FLOOD

Three Drown and Welland Waterway Is Closed to Navigation When Steamer Strikes Gates of Lock

VESSEL SINKS WITH HOLE IN HER HULL

C. G. S. Le Canadienne Is Carried Away by the Rush of Waters and Strikes Rocky Bank

ST. CATHRINES, Ont., June 20—Three children were drowned and the Welland canal was closed to navigation this afternoon when the Canadian government steamer Le Canadienne, bound up to Lake Superior for survey work struck the upper gates of lock No. 22 at Thorold. The gates gave way and the rush of water from above carried the steamer and the tower gates into the reach below, where the steamer struck the rocky bank and sank with a hole in her hull.

Willie Wallace, Willie Jacks and Leonard Brethery, all aged five years, were swept off the canal bank into the water and drowned. The mass of water continued down the canal as far as lock No. 18, badly damaging the banks and overflowing the adjoining farm lands. New gates will be placed in position tomorrow and it is hoped that the interruption to navigation will be brief.

EDITH HELD BY ICE IN BERING SEA

Seattle Steamship Bound for Nome Tightly Wedged in—Is Unable to Turn a Wheel

NOME, Alaska, June 20.—The steel steamship Edith, which sailed from Seattle on June 6, for Nome, with a cargo of livestock, provisions and coal, is fast in the ice pack 45 miles southeast of St. Lawrence Island, two hundred miles from Nome. A wireless message from the big freighter said the vessel was so tightly gripped by the ice that she was unable to turn her wheel.

The Edith is the first ship to report trouble with the ice in Bering Sea this season. The Victoria and Senator which came through ahead of her had no difficulty.

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

Man Separated From His English Wife Marries Again in Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Man., June 20.—Frederick Patrick Finn appeared in the police court this morning, charged with bigamy and was remanded. On April 2, 1904, he married at Ipswich, but one year later his wife obtained a separation for cruelty, when he was ordered to pay her ten shippings a week allimony which he has not kept up. He then came to Canada and married again on October 4, 1911, under the apprehension that after seven years he was justified in doing so. He will plead justification.

FRENCH INVASION OF ONTARIO

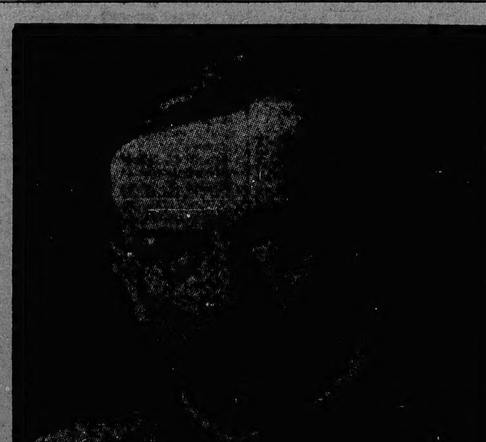

Figures to Be Disclosed by Censns Returns Will Prove of Amazing Character—Manufacturing Development

OTTAWA, June 20.—The census branch is busily engaged upon the completion of figures dealing with manufacturing and the development of Canada as well as in regard to the religions and nationalities of the people. It is understood that the first figures will show that the manufacturers of the Dominion have more than doubled in the past decade; whilst, as to the latter, the feature will be the very large increase of the French speaking Roman Catholic population of the province of Ontario which will be amazing to those who have not watched the French invasion of this province.

LEARNING FROM CANADA

Australian Immigration Official at Ottawa Picking up Pointers

OTTAWA, June 20.—Hon. Thomas Glassey, the special immigration commissioner of the government of Queensland, Australia, is in Ottawa today conferring with the Canadian officials in regard to Canada's methods of attracting new citizens to her shores. Australia has not been so successful with its immigration propaganda as the Dominion and Mr. Glassey is looking for pointers. He says that Australia will make vigorous efforts to secure a larger share of the immigration from the United Kingdom.

THE RIGHT HON. DAVID LLOYD GEORGE

LONDON, June 20.—A savage attack on David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, was made yesterday by some suffragettes outside of Clayton hall, but beyond knocking off the chancellor's silk hat they did no damage. Detectives seized and held them while Lloyd George jumped into a taxi cab and drove off. The women were released.

CONVENTION AT A STANDSTILL

Pandemonium of Cheering Develops Into Meaningless Chaos of Noise and No Business Is Done

POLICE CALLED IN TO COLISEUM PLATFORM

Dean Summer, Who Opens With Prayer, Invokes Self-Restraint and Cool Judgment in the Deliberations

CHICAGO, June 20.—Five minutes was the entire duration of the two sessions of the Republican convention today with a recess of four hours between them. The first session convened at noon and lasted four minutes.

The forenoon session was opened by the prayer of the Very Rev. Dr. Summer, Dean of the Protestant Episcopal church of Chicago. This prayer differed from that offered at the opening session on Tuesday, when Father Callaghan adhered strictly to the usual form of the Roman Catholic ritual, likewise from the invocation yesterday by Rabbi Stoltz, which was colorless and general in its terms. Dean Summer dealt quite directly with the sensational factional conflict present in the minds of every person in the enormous auditorium in whose behalf he spoke, and prayed that there should be granted to the members of the convention "Self constraint, cool judgment and all wisdom, that their deliberations may insure to the nation righteousness, peace and social justice."

The entire gathering, both on the floor and platform and in the galleries stood during Dean Summer's invocation and as he closed broke into quite a general handclapping.

Chaos of Noise

This afternoon's session was remarkable for the extraordinary conditions which ensued upon its adjournment. Almost at the fall of the chairman's gavel, there broke out a pandemonium of cheering which lasted almost as long as that of yesterday. It had scarcely a definite cause, though its immediate occasion was the effort of a man in the west gallery to swing the great gathering into unison with the cry "We want Teddy." It started all right but almost immediately the La Follette, Hadley and Cummins enthusiasts began an opposition turmoil with the result that in less than a minute there was simply one meaningless chaos of noise. Presently a group of men in the south gallary, back of the platform, brought four or five megaphones into play with "We want Taft." A rainstorm was in progress outside, so the people simply stood where they were and shouted, each to his own taste.

SENSATIONS IN MONTREAL TRIAL

Late "Father" Chiniquy's Daughter Sues Religious Paper for Libel—Last Card of Defence Fails

JUDGMENT WILL BE RENDERED TODAY

MONTREAL, June 20.—Sensational developments occurred this afternoon in the $15,000 libel suit brought by Mrs. Rebecca Morin, daughter of the famous ex-priest, Father Charles Chiniquy, against the Roman Catholic weekly paper La Croix, which said that as Chiniquy took vows of perpetual chastity, the woman he married was not really his wife, but his concubine.

It was said that Mrs. Morin was not the daughter of the late priest, but had been merely adopted, and therefore could not be affected by the statement in La Croix. The editor of La Croix said he did not even know Mrs. Morin, and all that he remembered of the case was that his uncle had once told him that his daughter had been adopted by Chiniquy and had subsequently married a Mr. Morin.

Mr. Justice Greenshields thereupon that he would not delay the case further and would give judgment tomorrow morning.

Aurelie Drouin, who also signed the affidavit, could not be located to testify this afternoon. The affidavit in question stated that Mrs. Morin was the daughter of Pierre Morois, also known as Peter Murray, of Kankakee, Illinois, and had been adopted by the Chiniquys. Mr. Justice Greenshields, in reply to this affidavit, declared that as there had been filed by the plaintiff authentic extracts from baptismal and

HARVEST FIFTY PERCENT GREATER

Optimistic Estimate of Alberta's Crop Made by Hon. Charles Stewart—Predicts Serious Grain Blockade

EDMONTON, Alta., June 20.—That Alberta is threatened with a grain blockade more serious than that of any previous year is the belief of Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of municipalities, who came into the city this morning after a tour of the province in connection with the new Rural Municipalities Act.

Mr. Stewart declared he had found the crops almost uniformly excellent throughout the province. In scarcely any instance has there been a shortage of rain while the heavy showers of the past few weeks and the warm sunshine which followed have fostered rapid growth. The growth is three weeks in advance of that of last year at a similar period and the present prospects are that the harvest will be fifty per cent greater.

Mr. William Hutchison, who since 1902 has been commissioner of exhibitions, has gone to San Francisco under instructions from Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of Agriculture, to look over the ground and make a preliminary report as to the possibilities of the exhibition for a display of Canada's resources and achievements.

Of the total number, 1,216 were Canadian, 351 from Ontario and 180 from Quebec.

Manitoba received 475 of these homestead entries; Saskatchewan 2,263, Alberta 1,684 and British Columbia 29.

RAILWAY BOARD CONFIRMS ORDER

PROFESSOR McLEAN WRITES JUDGMENT

The Tribunal Holds That the People of Hazelton Are Entitled to a Station Nearer Than the One Ordered

OTTAWA, June 20.—The judgment of the railway board in the Hazelton station case was written by Commissioner McLean and concurred in by Assistant Chairman Scott and Commissoiner Mills, who sat on the case. Commissioner McLean, in framing the order as regards the main point at issue, the relation of a station at New Hazelton, confirms the previous order of the board, and gives a succinct story of the long-drawn-out fight over this matter. His order, practically in full, is as follows:

"By the board's order of December 19, 1911, the railway company was ordered to provide and construct a station on lot 882, Cassiar district, B. C. The application of the railway for the approval of the location of station grounds, and a station on lot 851, was in terms of the said order, refused and the railway company was restrained by said order from locating a station at that point. Subsequently on the petition of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway company, the matter was taken before the governor-in-council and as a result of the action the governor-in-council issued an order in the matter rescinding the order of the board and stating:

"'It was made to appear that several different interests directly affected by the location of the station in question, had not had an opportunity to set forth their respective views as would seem just and desirable, and that therefore, in their judgment, the aforesaid application of Robert Kelly and of the G. T.P. should be remitted to the board of railway commissioners of Canada for their reconsideration, and that all parties interested in the matter should have made further application to the board of railway commissioners of Canada.'

"The matter was remitted to the council and it was said that it was remitted for consideration and that parties interested in the matter have the right to offer such further applications to the board as they may be advised.

Value of Evidence

"The matter was heard at length by the board from June 4 to 6. A large amount of material was submitted, the exact value of much of this from the standpoint of evidence is questionable. It was not, however, to be expected that in a section which has not as yet experienced the advantage of railway development, the views expressed as to the effects of the railway development in connection with the question of station sites could be other than speculative.

"As to the provision of the original order requiring the location of a station on lot 882 after careful consideration I am unable to see that this should be varied. The views expressed, by the late chief commissioner in his judgment are as pertinent to the location of this station now as when uttered. It is a situation which the railway has created for itself and for the board to assent to the modification of this term of the order would make it an assenting party to the injustice. In the original hearing the views of the residents of the present town of Hazelton were not to any extent before us, nor was there developed in the records the way in which their interests from the standpoint of traffic convenience were affected by the board's restraining the railway company from building on lot 851.

"A considerable amount of evidence and opinions was expressed in the hearing in regard to the highway methods of the approach to the propo-

FOUR KILLED IN FAMILY FEUD

Woman Uses Rifle With Deadly Effect Before Succumbing to Bullet—Culmination of Long Standing Dispute

SHERMAN, Texas, June 20.—In a feud fight between the Sharp and Waldrop families at Sperry's ranch, near here this afternoon four persons were killed and two wounded. Before she was slain, Miss Georgie Sharp killed one man and wounded another man and his wife. The battle began when the Sharp family, consisting of Miss Georgie, her father and her brother Walter, passed the home of the Waldrops. Apperently both sides began firng simultaneously.

Henry Waldrop killed Walter Sharp and his father. As they fell, Miss Sharp seized her father's still smoking rifle and took up the battle. She killed Russell Waldrop, then shot his parents. Prone on the ground, Henry Waldrop returned the fire, and shot Miss Sharp. She died almost instantly.

Today's fight was the culmination of a long standing dispute between the two families.

ed station on lot 9, spoken of as South Hazelton.

"Statements were submitted as to the cost of bridging Bulkley river. There were also expressions of opinion as to the intention of the provincial government in this respect. These expressions were not, however, sufficiently definite to permit one to reach any conclusion, as the bridge, if built, would ultimately cause the building of highways.

Rights of Present Town

"The residents of the present town of Hazelton want the station at some point nearer them. Lot 882 would be of greater convenience to them from a traffic standpoint.

"I am of the opinion that the representations of the present town have made out a case for a station location nearer to them than would be afforded by the location on lot 882.

"The second paragraph of the operative portion of the order which restrained the railway company as to location of station grounds and said paragraph should therefore be rescinded and it should be open to the railway to make application for the approval of a station site which will give adequate facilities to the people of Hazelton. The original plan for the location of the station at South Hazelton, which is before us, shows that the railway, in the layout of the station grounds and sidings, departed from practically everything which it had considered as a standard from the standpoint of engineering and operating practice. Had the board required the railway to locate a station under the engineering and operating conditions which in itself chose in this case, there undoubtedly would have been most strenuous objection on the part of the railway to approve such station site as it may deem convenient for the people of Hazelton, the board cannot and will not be oblivious of standard which the railway has chosen for itself."

Police Called In

Under cover of the noise, and at first unnoticed, by the crowd, there began to gather on the platform, a body of big policemen, first one then another till in a few minutes there were ranged along the edge and at the back of the platform, some twenty blue coats. They were under the personal command of Assistant Chief Schuettler. Then it began to be noticed that Chairman Root, Secretary Gleason, Sergeant-at-Arms Stone and his assistant had never left the platform at all. The crowd began to understand the reason for this show of force. One of the reasons for the immense crowd which had gathered today was the general impression that Colonel Roosevelt would come to the convention and make a speech, also there was considerable reason to assume from the morning newspapers that today would bring to pass the much discussed battle between the factions, perhaps a bolt of the Roosevelt adherents, and possibly an attempt to hold a rival convention simultaneously on the floor of the same hall.

There had been a tremendous addition amounting to almost a doubling of the police force on duty at the hal, and in the morning Chief of Police McSweeney had taken command at the Coliseum. To the person uninformed as to the swiftly changing developments of the day, the promise of excitement was exceptionally alluring.

The crowd which waited for the storm to cease, was good humored, but it was a situation full of possibilities and the officials were taking no chances. Assistant Chief Schuettler was loath to turn the people out into the downpour, so for a good deal more than an hour, a police guard surrounded the platform, and the convention officers kept their places on the stage while the great crowd yelled itself tired.

Whether business will proceed tomorrow when the convention is called to order at 11 a. m., will depend chiefly on whether the expected all night session of the credentials committee completes the work of preparing the roll of the convention.

Mr. Roosevelt's Attitude

Col. Roosevelt tonight indicated that under certain conditions he might withdraw from the Republican party to take the lead in the formation of a new party. "If the people want a progressive party I'll be in it," he said.

Some of Roosevelt's supporters urged their associates tonight to precipitate the crisis in the Republican National Convention at the earliest opportunity. The more conservative counsel prevailed and it was determined there should be no bolt from the regular convention. It was the plan of the Roosevelt delegates tonight to make their last stand on the report of the credentials committee. If the 78 delegates claimed by them to be fraudulent are seated, the Roosevelt forces will remain in the convention until the end, but will not vote. It is their plan then to proceed to the nomination of the colonel in the coliseum and claim regularity for him.

Colonel Roosevelt has not definitely committed himself to the latter part of this proposition. He is considering the advisability of delaying action for several weeks and then to summon an entirely new convention. This would not be held until after the Democratic convention in Baltimore.

It was predicted that the nominating stage of the convention might not be reached until late Saturday night. A wider latitude of debate is to be allowed in the convention tomorrow. Mr. Roosevelt said emphatically that he would make the independent fight for the party if he was convinced there was a popular demand for him.

HON. MR. TAYLOR IS DELAYED IN THE EAST

Will Not Return Till Monday—Mr. Foster, Deputy Minister, Makes a Tour of Road Work on the Mainland

It was generally expected that Hon. Mr. Taylor, minister of public works, would have reached Victoria yesterday on his return from Ottawa, where he had been discussing several provincial matters with the Dominion authorities, among them being the location of the harbor line at Prince Rupert, and the preservation of the river banks throughout the province, but owing to the sudden illness of a relative the minister was unable to return as expected, and now it is understood that he will not reach the coast before Monday next.

The deputy minister of the department, Mr. W. W. Foster, who had gone over to the mainland to meet his chief, so as to be able to confer with him on the spot in relation to the difficulty that has arisen in connection with the proposed highway from Vancouver to New Westminster, has returned to the capital after making an extensive tour of the roadway operations in the Surrey and Delta municipalities. In connection with the disagreement that has been found to exist concerning the new highway Mr. Foster states that Burnaby is especially anxious to have the work proceeded with on the terms that were decided upon before the minister went east. South Vancouver appears to be recalcitrant and it is doubted if the work will go on for some time unless a speedy settlement of the difficulty is arrived at.

In the original arrangement, which was made with the co-operation of the minister at a joint conference of the municipalities interested in the project, it was provided that each municipality would contribute a certain sum, but since then South Vancouver has declared its intention to devote the money to other purposes, which is tantamount to throwing out the proposition. There is a feeling that this action on the part of South Vancouver has been prompted by the thought that the government, rather than allow the question to be shelved, will provide the outstanding amount, but as the government has already pledged itself considerably to this piece of work, the alleged calculation mentioned may not meet with governmental approval or support. In the meantime Burnaby is keen on having the work started, and with that object in view has decided upon interviewing Hon. Mr. Taylor immediately upon his return.

While on the mainland, Mr. Foster traversed a great deal of the road work in operation and he reports that splendid progress is being made all along the line. In the Surrey and Delta municipalities there is a considerable amount of macadamizing being done, and Mr. Foster declares that the work is of a permanent nature and will assuredly prove highly satisfactory to the increasing traffic in that part of the country. Widening operations are also being conducted extensively.

One thing that impressed Mr. Foster greatly on his trip was the number of motor cars that came across the boundary line daily. Their number so struck him that he questioned one of the officials in regard to it and was informed that compared with the same period last year the number of cars coming into Canada is more than double.

At Burnaby, where the new prison farm is to be located, Mr. Foster found that the temporary buildings are now nearing completion and will be ready for use within a very few weeks.

LABOR MINISTER TOURING CANADA

Hon. T. W. Crothers on His Way West Will Look Into the Present High Cost of Living

FORT WILLIAM, June 20.—On an official tour of investigation which will extend to the Pacific coast, Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, arrived here today and was entertained by officials and labor leaders. The ministers and his party were taken for a trip around the harbor this afternoon, making a stop at the Canadian Northern coal docks, where there exists at present a dispute between the employees and the operating company. It is understood the minister closely investigated the situation and made himself fully acquainted with the demands made by the men and the objections raised by the officials.

He left tonight and will stop at Winnipeg where he will investigate the Grand Trunk Pacific strike, which has been on for months. While there he will also look into the present high cost of living.

birth registers, going to establish the fact that she was really the daughter of the late Charles Chiniquy, he personally would like to have the witnesses who signed the affidavit cross-examined in open court.

In response to this, M. Latour made his appearance this afternoon and gave the testimony above recorded.

Mrs. Morin then declared that the story that she was not Chiniquy's daughter arose from the fact that he had an adopted daughter, the daughter of Pierre Morois referred to, and created a sensation by producing this daughter in the person of a Mrs. Lefebvre.

The witness testified that she had been adopted by the Chiniquys at the age of 7, and had obeyed them as a daughter should. She knew that Mrs. Morin, the plaintiff, was the real daughter of the Chiniquys, as she had known her from the cradle, when she used to be left in charge of the house.

In view of tis fact, the judge did not think it necessary to grant a stay of proceedings to bring to Montreal from Illinois Mrs. Lefebvre's father, the Pierre Morois mentioned in the affidavit, as the father of the plaintiff, andannounced that judgment would be rendered at 10.30 tomorrow morning.

GETTING UP GREAT PROVINCIAL EXHIBIT

Lethbridge Exposition Will Reveal in Concrete form the Agricultural Possibilities of B.C.

British Columbia will be strongly represented at the great agricultural exhibition which is to be held at Lethbridge next October, and if everything goes well it is proposed to ship the provincial exhibit from that point to the big shows to be held later at Chicago and New York.

Mr. W. E. Scott, the deputy minister of agriculture, is actively engaged in the work of getting the exhibit together. It is his aim to take to Lethbridge the finest exhibit ever produced in the province both in point of quality and diversification. It is expected that the feature of the exhibit will be the collection of fruit grown without irrigation; and second to that, it is believed will be the specimens of B. C. timber, which it is proposed to ship to the show. In a communication to the chairman of the exhibition, Mr. Scott says:

"Our exhibit will be made more with the idea of showing the resources and potentiality of our province than for competition. We do not have in view the competing for prizes offered for dry farmed products exclusively, because we have only a very limited territory in which the precipitation is less than twenty inches. But much of our fruit and some of our vegetables are grown by dry farming methods and we desire to show the world what we are producing and we certainly feel that we shall win the merits of praise of all the delegates to the dry farming congress."

Mr. R. N. Winslow, provincial horticulturist, is personally attending to the selection of the fruit for the exhibit.

Berries

The berry season has come, and there are indications that the crop is an unusually large one. Every one should share in nature's bounty for there are not many people in this busy city who have not the wherewithal to buy. It should, however, be remembered that every one who buys a box of berries is entitled to all that a box will hold. Some of the dealers are careful not to break the law in this respect, but others do not fill the boxes. No woman should allow herself to be wronged. Whatever the price charged for a box of berries, it is not a fair one unless so many cubic inches of fruit are furnished the buyer.

Then no one ought, in justice to their families, to buy berries that are not protected from the dust. It is possible that with the dust various kinds of microbes will gather on the skin of the fruit. This is not faddism, but simple fact. A box of fruit that has been exposed to [illegible] and dust may not have become contaminated, but the risk in eating them is such that it is not worth running. [illegible] Victoria can eat during the season, the better, but it ought to be not only fresh but clean.

Divisions of Income.

There is a great deal of foolish talk in these days about the financial independence of the wife. Neither wife nor husband can be independent. They have entered upon a partnership which makes their interests common. But this does not forbid the use of common sense or the carrying out of business principles. A writer in the Outlook presents this subject in a way that will appeal to both men and women. She says:

"I am only going to insist on a division of income to which all agree. In the first years this is only the husband and wife, but it is essential for their happiness that they do agree. This can be done only by talking it over very frankly and agreeing how much shall be spent in the different departments. If this is all agreed on together, however, while there must be readjustments and there will be many a slip, still there will be no feeling of bitterness. And how often have I seen in other families the little friction which comes from the wife feeling she is not getting her full share, and the husband deploring his wife's extravagance!

"We have put the same theory into practice with our children. When our eldest daughter was old enough to have a dress allowance, we talked to her in this way: 'Our yearly income is so much and our expenses thus and so'; then we set down the figures covering necessary expenses—rent, insurance, food, doctors, summer outing, etc. 'Now, deducting this amount from our income, we have so much left for clothes and other personal expenses; there are five of us, and your share would be so much. You see, we are giving you just as much as we can afford to, and we hope you will take a pride in living within it.' A sense of honor always responds to such a call, and the allowance has never been overstepped."

NEW BRUNSWICK ELECTION

Mr. Flemming's victory in New Brunswick is the result of honest and business-like government. In the last legislature the standing of the parties was: Government, 34; Opposition, 12. In the new House, which will have 48 members, the Conservatives will have at least 40, and probably more, supporters. Thus the maritime province is overwhelmingly Conservative, and its verdict is an indication of the trend of thought throughout the Dominion.

Like Sir Richard McBride in British Columbia, although not on such a large scale, Mr. Flemming made one of the planks in his platform during his campaign a railroad policy. The line provided for by this is to run down the valley of the St. John river. His ready-made farm policy was one which also appealed to the people. Most of all, however, the record of the government during the past four years was what led to the immense support he received. The old coalition government under the successive leaderships of A. G. Blair, James Michell, H. R. Emmerson, L. J. Tweedie, William Pugsley and C. W. Robinson, which was in power from 1883-1908, in the latter year gave way to an administration headed by Mr. Hazen, which has done much for the province in the way of progressive legislation. When Mr. Hazen was called to Ottawa to become Minister of Marine in the Borden Government he was succeeded in the provincial premiership by Mr. J. K. Flemming, who secured such a notable triumph yesterday.

The fight, prior to the election, was a warm one, and the opposition, or Liberal, leader, Mr. A. B. Copp, on frequent occasions predicted the overthrow of Premier Flemming. Mr. Pugsley, Minister of Public Works in the late Laurier Government, Mr. H. R. Emmerson and Mr. F. B. Carvell, M. P., all rushed to the assistance of the provincial Liberals, but their efforts were unavailing, unless it was that they were successful in increasing the size of the government majority. Mr. Flemming was confident that his party would be sustained in power, but we do not believe that even he had any hope that his majority would be so overwhelming.

Any hopes which the Liberals of the country entertained as a result of the Quebec elections have received a rude set-back by the verdict of New Brunswick. During recent weeks the defeated Ministers of the former Laurier government and Sir W. Laurier himself have been delivering a number of speeches in which they have predicted a speedy return to power for their party. It is difficult to gather the source of their optimism. Since the last Dominion election, Ontario, British Columbia, and now New Brunswick, have shown that they are overwhelmingly Conservative in their faith. To offset this the Liberal government in Quebec made some gains in the election in that province. It is an extraordinary process of reasoning by which the Dominion Liberals can educe hope out of the situation in provincial politics. Indeed, if the results in the provinces are any criterion of how the people of the country think in Dominion politics, Mr. Borden's government, if it went to the country tomorrow, would be sustained in power by a largely increased majority.

New Brunswick is to be heartily congratulated on the result of her election. In Mr. Flemming she has a wise administrator, who realizes to the full the resources of his province, and who is giving all the aid that a government can give towards their development along the best and most conservative lines.

A MUNICIPAL COMMISSION

It is only natural that with the rapid growth of cities in the province the municipal law should from time to time [illegible] cessary, and the government, realising this, will appoint a royal commission to make a thorough investigation in the hope that its recommendations may lead to legislation of a more satisfactory character. It is hoped to devise a code of law which will in its working out be applicable to the whole province. For this purpose it will probably be necessary to divide municipalities under three heads. The proposal has been made that the divisions should be first class cities, second class cities and rural municipalities, with separate regulations for each division. Of necessity this is only a proposal as the commission to be appointed will be given full scope to ascertain the justification for the complaints that have been received from time to time, and to suggest what the remedies should be.

One of the most interesting recommendations which will probably be a result will be the desirability, or otherwise, of leaving it within the option of cities whether they shall have a commission form of government, or remain as at present constituted. Up to the present the only city in Canada which has adopted this form of government is St. John, New Brunswick, and the adoption is of such recent date that it is, as yet, impossible to ascertain how it is working out. There has been a lot of talk in Victoria of government by commission but up to date its advocates have been unable to put forward conclusive arguments to show that such a method would be a desirable one in the West. The fact is that there seems a lot of ignorance on the subject and it will doubtless be part of the investigating commission's duty to ascertain all that can be found out on the subject.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Decorum is apparently an unknown quantity in the proceedings of the Republican National Convention. We have always known that our good neighbors do things with more noise than anyone else, but the present quadrennial ebullition seems to be easily outshining its forerunners. Out of the maze of charges and counter charges arises the one fact, that Mr. Roosevelt has acknowledged that he cannot secure the duly authorised nomination for the Republican party. He seems anxious that the delegates who are supporting him should form a convention of their own and in this way choose him as their candidate. If this happens, and at the time of writing there seems a strong possibility of it, there can be only one outcome, and that is the election to the White House of the Democratic nominee.

There seems to be a growing feeling in the United States that Mr. Roosevelt made a mistake in having gone to Chicago. Hitherto, as a politician, he has not made many blunders, and his action in the present instance is doubtless due to his realization of the love of spectacular display, which is one of the predominating characteristics of his countrymen. His object was to stampede the convention. Judging from results up to the present he has failed. Mr. Taft's following is holding together and all efforts to shake it have been futile. The ex-President has attempted an enormous task in putting his personality in direct antagonism to the political machine of the United States. If present indications are misleading, and he should happen to secure the nomination, it will be the greatest triumph of his career, for his election seems a certainty with Mr. Taft out of the way.

The spectacle presented by the convention now in progress is not an edifying one. When all is said and done, perhaps it is the logical climax to the campaign which led up to it. The ways of politicians in the United States are not our ways, and we find it difficult to appreciate them. To Canadians the proceedings now in progress at Chicago have an opera bouffe tinge, which does not seem consistent with the true ideals of nationhood. Yet in spite of this we are forced to acknowledge that our neighbors have a wonderful way of settling down to steady and serious business after all the tumult and shouting has died away. This characteristic is one which leads us to believe that whoever is elected as president, the country will still be found in the van of human progress.

Saskatoon has organized a league to further the city' industrial development. The move seems an excellent one and it will be highly interesting to watch its progress.

Humanity is paying a heavy toll in its efforts to conquer the air. The latest disaster in which two French army officers lost their lives would indicate that as yet airships do not carry lights.

Twelve per cent of the men who will vote in the United States presidential election will be unable to read their ballots More that one in four of the native white children in eleven southern states are not attending school. One in seven of all the children in the United States between the ages of 10 and 14 years are not in school; and it is bad outlook for the future generation across the line, and it is a sorry comment on the educational legislation which prevails there.

The immense equipment which the Canadian railway companies have ordered illustrates as few other things could the rapid growth of traffic in this country. The fact that all this equipment cannot be secured in Canada would seem to indicate that industrial development is not keeping pace with progress.

Victoria's annual rose show is always an occasion of special interest, not only to lovers of flowers in the city, but also to tourists who may happen to be here when it is being held. There are few, if any, places on the continent where such exquisite blooms can be shown. The exhibitions of flowers held here from time to time are glowing tributes to the beneficent climate that we enjoy. This year the rose show will be held under the aegis of the Daughters of Empire at the Alexandra Club on Tuesday next, and there is little doubt that it will be more successful than any of its predecessors.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Captain Cook

Sir,—In your interesting account relating to the medal struck in honor of our great explorer, Captain James Cook replies of which are to be seen in our provincial library, may I respectfully point out that Captain Cook never circumnavigated Vancouver Island, the only place he visited on this coast being Nootka Sound, which was at the time named by him in 1778. The honor of being the first to sail round Vancouver Island lies with Captain George Vancouver, his officers and men, in the exploring vessels H. M. S. Discovery and Chatham, in the summer of 1792.

JOHN T. WALBRAN.

"Right Honorable"

Sir,—In a leaderette in the Colonist of the 19th inst. I read: "The admission of Sir Rufus Isaacs, attorney-general, into the British Cabinet draws attention to the fact that a member of the Ministry in the United Kingdom is not necessarily of the Cabinet."

This is not extraordinary, seeing that there are 57 members if the Ministry, of whom only 22, including Sir Rufus Isaacs, are of the Cabinet.

Then the article goes on: "The attorney-general, the solicitor-general and some other officers are neither members of the Cabinet nor privy councillors."

But Sir Rufus Isaacs has been a privy councillor for some considerable time. The paragraph concludes: "By his new appointment the attorney-general becomes Right Honorable, which is, we think, the first time the office has carried that title."

Permit me to point out that all privy councillors, of which there are about 250, are addressed as "Right Honorable," and that, instead of the attorney-general, by his new appointment, becoming Right Honorable, the office carrying the title, the simple fact is that the Right Honorable Sir Rufus Isaacs, privy councillor and member of the Ministry, has been included in the Cabinet.

Organization of Labor in Canada

OTTAWA, June 20.—The Department of Labor at Ottawa has issued a special report on Labor Organization in Canada, the general nature of which is set forth in the opening sentences of the introductory chapter. "The aim of the present report," it is there explained, "is to present in concise and convenient form a statement showing the details of labor organization in Canada. The subject is one that has not perhaps in the past received the attention it has merited. The extent and variety of interests concerned, and the elaborate system of organization which has been evolved, are little realized by the public in general, and are not closely appreciated, in all probability, by many of those who are themselves sometimes participating in the work here indicated formally in facts and figures. The information presented will be of particular value to employers and employees of all classes, but will also be of deep interest in other circles. Labor organization is today attracting a closer attention than perhaps at any previous time, whether in Canada or elsewhere. Associated with the question of labor organization, growing sometimes, in fact, out of it, are some aspects of those industrial problems which are becoming more and more the subject of research on the part of publicists, journalists and all students of affairs. The one matter bears closely on the other, and the facts which have been here assembled will be, it is believed, of material value from this point of view. It is not intended that this record should be considered as in any way either an advocacy or a condemnation of trades unionism. An effort is made simply to state freely and clearly the facts gathered and thus to show as precisely as the limits of an official publication will permit the general situation in Canada today."

The report is of necessity largely statistical, but includes a general statement of organization. As the report shows, the relations as to labor organization between the United States and Canada are closely interwoven and the statistics printed include sufficient information bearing on this international aspect of the subject to permit a comprehensive view of the whole.

Briefly, it may be stated, that there are 1,741 local unions in Canada, of which 1,531 are international in character and the remainder are associated with central bodies having no affiliation outside the Dominion. Ontario bulks largely in trade unionism, claiming 790 local unions out 1,741 in Canada. British Columbia comes second 153; Nova Scotia, 138; Manitoba, 118; Saskatchewan, 84; New Brunswick, 73; Prince Edward Island, 7. These figures as to provinces include all local unions whether international or otherwise; in Prince Edward Island there are respectively three international and four national bodies. The special strength of unionism is necessarily in the larger cities and the four largest cities in Canada comprising between them about one-fifth of the local unions proportioned as follows:—Toronto, 106; Montreal, 95; Winnipeg, 79; Vancouver, 76; Other cities rank in number as follows: Hamilton, 48; Ottawa, 47; Quebec, 42; Victoria, 42; Calgary, 40; London, 35; Edmonton, 33; St. Thomas, 28; Fort William, 28; Lethbridge, 28; Port Arthur, 27; Halifax, 22; Moose Jaw, 21; Saskatoon, 21; St. John, 20; It is interesting to note in these figures the prominence taken by western cities and how far in some cases they have, relatively speaking outstripped the older eastern cities in labor organization.

The total estimated membership in Canada of trade unions is 133,132, the Canadian international roll reaching 119,415, the remainder belonging to purely Canadian unions. Of the latter class the membership is no doubt actually larger than these figures indicate, but precise reports have not been received. The international bodies represented in Canada show a total membership, mostly in Canada and the United States, of 2,340,865 members comprised in 27,418 unions; there are besides, it will be remembered a considerable minority of trades organizations in the United States without branches in Canada, the membership of which in the United States will increase the total considerably. The total union membership in the United States is placed at 2,625,000 for 1910, a somewhat greater strength relatively than in Canada, having regard to the respective populations.

The report includes an interesting statement of the totals of trade union membership as to various leading countries of Europe, and including Canada and the United States, respectively, the figures being as follows:

	Total Members.	P.C. of Members to Population.
Austria	400,505	1.4
Belgium	138,928	1.8
Denmark	131,563	4.9
France	977,350	2.5
German Empire	2,688,144	4.1
Hungary	85,266	.4
Italy	167,256	.5
Netherlands	148,850	2.4
Sweden	148,649	2.7
Switzerland	110,749	3.1
United Kingdom	2,426,592	5.4
United States	2,625,000	3.0
Canada	133,132	2.0

Canada, it will be noticed, is less highly unionized than many European countries. Germany has the largest union membership, exceeding even the figures of the Uniter States, with its greater population, but Great Britain shows the highest percentage of unions to population, Denmark being second, Germany third and the United States fourth.

The report serves also as a Trade Union Directory, including as it does for 1912 of all Canadian trades organizations.

GARBAGE COLLECTION

City Secures Sites for Sub-Stations in Spring Ridge and Fairfield Road Sections

Extensions to the system of garbage collection in the city will be made immediately by the erection of sub-staitons, by which means the work of the sanitary department will be greatly facilitated. The city has just recured possession of two sites, one near Ross Bay cemetery and another in the vicinity of the Chinese gardens, near Cedar Hill road, where collection depots will be erected, while a third depot will be erected on the proposed wharf at the foot of Turner street, Victoria West.

On each of these sites bunkers and a dust-proof structure will be erected and all collections made in the three sections of the city will be carted to these centres and from there removed by the motor garbage truck which is now on order and will soon be delivered. By means of this system of substation collections the growing work of the department will be more speedily handled, while better supervision of the districts will be possible. At present the haul from outlying sections is so long that great delay in collecting garbage has been experienced. At each sub-station stables for horses used for collection purposes will be erected. At present the equipment is housed on the city wharf at the foot of Herald street and much time is lost in getting the carts out to the outskirts each morning.

This system of sub-stations has been adopted in many cities. Vancouver now making arrangements for a similar system. In addition to a saving in time the new method will also mean a considerable saving in cost.

The distribution of garbage cans is being proceeded with as fast as the supply can be secured. Victoria West residents have now been furnished with a supply and Oaklands district will next be attended to. To date about 7,000 cans have been distributed.

Why Money is Cheap.

"I want you to tell me what this paper means when it says in its market report that money is cheap," says Mrs. McFee to her husband, who like all husbands, is supposed to be an encyclopedic.

McFee laid down the sporting sheet. "It's simply putting in a briefer form the statement that money talks,' he replied, "and that talk is cheap."—Judge's Library.

PLEASED WITH VICTORIA

Engineering Authority Surprised at the Amount of Improvement Work Carried Out in This City

Surprise at the amount of public improvement work under way in Victoria was expressed yesterday by Mr. M. N. Baker, one of the editors of Engineering News, the leading publication of its kind in the United States, who spent the morning in the city en route to Seattle, where he will attend the forthcoming sessions of the Society of American Civil Engineers.

Mr. Baker, who is an engineering authority, is making his first trip to Western Canada. He decided to make the trip to the coast via the Canadian route in order to see for himself the immense progress which has been made in this portion of the Dominion, and as a result of his trip his observations will be published in the journal he represents.

In company with City Engineer Rust, Mr. Baker made an extended tour of the city, paying particular attention to the evidences of civic progress in the way of street improvements. He was surprised at the amount of paving and other work done, and was enthusiastic over the natural beauty of Victoria and environs. The Smith's Hill reservoir was visited, its chequered career explained to him, and he expressed admiration at the manner in which the repair work had been carried out. Mr. Baker assured Mr. Rust that Victoria would receive extended attention in the series of articles he proposes to contribute to his publication.

In fact, the progress of the whole West was a surprise to him, and he predicted a great future for this portion of the Dominion. Mr. Baker is accompanied by Mrs. Baker and their son. They left on the afternoon boat for Seattle.

UNIVERSITY CADETS PASS INSPECTION

General Mackenzie Compliments the Young Soldiers on Their Splendid Appearance

Brigadier-General Colin Mackenzie, accompanied by Major Hopwood, A. D. C., visited the University school yesterday to inspect the cadet corps, and expressed great admiration of the soldierly appearance shown by the boys. Major Snow, of the Corps of Guides, inspector of cadets, accompanied by Lieut. Mulcahey, inspected the boys shortly before the arrival of the distinguished military visitor, who is spending a few days in Victoria before leaving for the military camps at Calgary and Sewell, Manitoba, to carry out the annual inspection of the corps. Owing to theinclement weather, the cadets were, unfortunately, unable to carry out their battalion drill on the parade ground as had been intended, and were drawn up in the gymnasium. Three companies of the cadets were on parade, the battalion being in charge of Capt. and Adjutant H. R. Wade, second in command, in the absence of Cadet Major Rand, who has gone to the military school at Kingston. The companies were commanded as follows: A company, Capt. Crawford, Lieuts. Macdonald and Ashcroft; B company, Capt. Wyld and Lieuts. Galer and Davis; C company, Capt. Thorsen, Lieuts. Decker and Sanderson; Battalion Sergt.-Major Creary and Quartermaster Lieut. Willis. The instructors present on parade were Capt. R. V. Harvey and Lieut. C. H. Collinson. The band was under command of Band Sergt. Yorke.

Before the inspection Band Sergt. Yorke was presented by General Mackenzie with a Ross rifle presented by Mr. D. M. Rogers for competition and won by him, and General Mackenzie, after complimenting him on his shooting, said he hoped he would continue to practise and not rest until he became a member of the Bisley team.

The cadets drawn up in company column presented arms as the general entered the hall, and, after inspecting them, the inspecting officer said he was glad to have had the opportunity of seeing such a fine body of cadets on parade. He had heard a good reputation of the corps and was not disappointed in them. He regretted that the heavy rain did not permit of his having seen them undergoing their drill, as he had hoped.

General Mackenzie then went on to explain the cadet movement, and said he considered it the duty of every boy to undergo training to fit himself to do his share in any service required of him, and the boy could not do this better than by becoming a member of such a corps as that of the University school. He congratulated the corps on having 14 of its members selected to go to the Toronto exhibition in August, and hoped that he would have an opportunity of seeing them on parade next year.

Major Snow, inspector of cadets, proposes to postpone his inspection, and will probably go to the University school again on Monday.

Following his inspection of the cadets, General Mackenzie, with his A. D. C., and Mrs. Hopwood, were shown over the University school by the warden, Rev. W. W. Bolton, and expressed their admiration of the arrangements.

FAREWELL GATHERING

Chinese Methodist Mission Members Present Address and Gifts to Rev. T. E. Holling

The last but by no means the least of the farewell gatherings held in honor of Rev. T. E. Holling was given last evening at the Chinese Methodist Mission. Rev. G. E. Hartwell, Methodist superintendent, presided, and a large number of Chinese were present as well as a score or so of white people.

Mr. Hartwell testified to the splendid work done by Rev. Mr. Holling for the mission. He also referred to the growth of the work among the Chinese in this province, stating that fifty or sixty bright young Chinese boys attended the mission school each day, and that the increasing interest taken by the youth of China in the mission was the church's opportunity to do a great work.

Chan Sui, one of the best known members of the mission, read a farewell address on behalf of that institution to Rev. Mr. Holling, after which Lee Fat handed the retiring pastor a handsome umbrella and Mrs. Holling a beautiful length of white silk, while accompanying both gifts was a photograph of the mission showing a number of the students in the doorway.

Rev. Mr. Holling said this was the culmination of a very happy series of leave takings, and paid a warm tribute to the thoughtfulness and large-heartedness of the students of the mission. Referring to the work done there he said that not less than $12,000 had been spent in improvements. They did not rely upon the equipment of the building to make an impression on Chinese hearts and lives, however, for there was no particular virtue in bricks or mortar and stone. He emphasized the fact that the mission building was a constant example to the Chinese passersby, and paid a glowing tribute to the work done for the mission by the ladies of the Oriental Home staff, Mrs. Snider, Miss Smith, Miss Martin and Mrs. Denver.

The singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and prayer, offered in Chinese by Mr. Chan, the mission worker, who also presided at the harmonium, brought the first part of the evening to a close. The gathering then assembled around two long tables, beautifully decorated with roses, carnations and other fragrant flowers, and laden with good things, and enjoyed a most delectable repast. At the close of the meal a short speech was made by Mr. Hardwick, a friend of Mr. Holling's for many years, who paid a warm tribute to the many excellent qualities of the retiring minister. Mr. Holling closed proceedings with prayer and the benediction.

During the evening mention was made of the fact that Mr. Chan, who has done such good work in connection with the mission, is leaving town shortly, having been transferred to New Westminster.

On Tuesday evening, at the Japanese Methodist Mission, Rev. Mr. Holling was the recipient of yet another presentation, taking the form of a beautifully inlaid Japanese table.

A NOTED FIGURE GONE

The death occurred a few days ago of Rt. Rev. John Sheepshanks, bishop of Norwich, since 1893. He was in many ways a notable character, and his early years in the church were closely connected with British Columbia. He was sent out to the infant colony soon after ordination, and was in the province from 1859 to 1867, first as missionary at Lytton, and later as rector of New Westminster and chaplain to the bishop of Columbia. He had many of the characteristics, physical and otherwise, which made Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie famous, and was a great friend of the chief justice.

On leaving British Columbia he crossed the Pacific and then walked across China, Siberia and Russia to St. Petersburg. The story of his journeyings he told thirty-five years later in a very readable volume. When he reached home again he was appointed to the vicerage of Bilton, Yorkshire, where he remained five years, and then from 1873 until his elevation to the bishopric he was vicar of St. Margaret Anfield, Liverpool.

The late bishop was the left supporter of Queen Alexandra on the occasion of the coronation. He was a man of very pronounced views, which he never hesitated to express, and among other things had a rootel aversion to week-end outings and to clergymen who were popular with their congregations.

WORTHLESS CURRENCY

Bills of Long Defunct Bank of Prince Edward Island in Circulation Here

Merchants and others are warned by local bank managers that a considerable number of notes of the defunct Bank of Prince Edward Island are in circulation in the city, several having been presented at the banks by those who received them in good faith. The notes come from Vancouver, the police authorities of which city recently warned the local authorities of the possible attempt on the part of a crook, known to have operated in the Terminal City, to circulate the paper here.

About three weeks ago an individual claiming to be the son of W. J. Burns, the noted sleuth, and to be a detective himself, called upon a resident of Vancouver and alleged he had a search warrant permitting him to look for a quantity of ten and twenty-dollar bills of the defunct Bank of Prince Edward Island. The Vancouverite, a keen collector of coins and paper money, was in possession of between $1,500 and $2,000 worth, face value, of the worthless bank bills and, taking the man's story as correct, gave up the bills. That was the last seen of the so-called detective, but a few days later some of the bills were placed in circulation.

A search for the crook was instituted by the Vancouver police, but without success, and the Victoria authorities were warned. Apparently he or an accomplice has arrived in this city, for bills of the twenty-dollar denomination have been put in circulation, several having been detected at local banks. The Bank of Prince Edward Island has long been out of existence and its currency is absolutely worthless.

ROSE SHOW DETAILS TO BE SETTLED TODAY

Daughters of Empire Will Meet—All Growers and Lovers of Roses Asked to Co-operate

As announced yesterday, the Daughters of the Empire will be in charge of the annual Rose Show, which is advertised to take place on Tuesday next, from 2 to 10 p. m. at the Alexandra Club.

By the courtesy of Mr. Weiler, entries will be received by a member of the committee who will be allowed desk room in the front part of the Weiler store today and Saturday, and on Monday until 2 p. m.

The prize list, as already published, may be secured at Weiler's, or at the Alexandra Club.

The Regent of the Camosun Chapter begs all Chapters, or members of Chapters, willing to co-operate, to attend the emergency meeting called for this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. at the club, when arrangements will be fully discussed, details entered into and work apportioned.

It is hoped that everyone interested either in the patriotic work of the order, or in the success of horticulture in Victoria, will assist by sending in exhibits or decorations.

It is the great object of the committee to encourage all growers to look upon the rose show as a "display," rather than a "competition," and to bring their lovely flowers in great quantities as will enhance the already well-established claims of beautiful Victoria. The small growers, as well as those who grow on an extensive scale, are urged to send in what they consider their best blooms.

Navy and National Security.

Mr. Winston Churchill, at the annual banquet of the Royal Academy of Arts, responded for the Navy to the toast "Imperial Forces." The business of the Admiralty he said differs from the business of many great public departments in one important aspect. In many offices of state there is a great succession of interesting and important questions, which are all detached from one another. But at the Admiralty everything contributes to, and converges on, one signle object, namely, the development of the maximum war power at a given moment and at a particular point. (Hear, hear.) Upon that precise object is directed all that the science of our age can boast. All the wealth of our country, all the resources of our civilization, all the patience, steady devotion to duty, sacrifice of personal interest, which our naval officers and men supply—(cheers)—all the glories of our history in the past—everything is directed upon this one particular point and object, namely, the manifestation at some special place during the compass of a few minutes of shattering, blasting, overpowering force.

This may not, perhaps, seem a very amiable topic upon which civilized men should devote so many hours of their lives. And yet I venture to think that in the world in which we live, and in the circumstances amid which we find ourselves, the study of absolute force for its own sake is not, perhaps, altogether unworthy of those who are called upon to take a share in the counsels of a free people. For what lies on the other side? What lies behind this development of force and war power? Behind it lies all our right and claim to our great position in the world. (Cheers.) I ascribe it to our power to put our own destructive and characteristic mark on the unfolding civilization of mankind. Safe under the shelter of this manifestation, we agree or quarrel as we please. We may carry on our party politics with perfect security, so long as the quality of our civilization, so long as the patriotism and organization of our country is sufficiently high to enable us to produce the maximum of force at a particular point. There is no reason whatever why we should not hand on undiminished to those who come after us the good estate we have received from those who have gone before. (Cheers.)

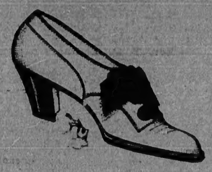

There is great danger that the study of force and the development of force may lead men into the temptation of using the force they have themselves developed. There is a danger of men and nations becoming fascinated with the terrible machinery they have themselves called into being. It is also right to remember that if ever we do become engaged—if any of the great civilized and scientific nations of the world become engaged in a war they will all be heartily sick of it before they have got to the end. For the rest, the best way to make war impossible is to make victory certain. (Cheers.) And I am glad to be able to assure you that we see no difficulty in maintaining the main security of the country, and in providing an effective margin for our security at all the decisive points without adding very greatly to the generous provision which Parliament has made in this year, and which it will doubtless renew in the years to come. (Cheers.)

MATTERS OF MOMENT IN WOMEN'S REALM

A Humble Benefactor.

There is a story going the rounds of the newspapers that is worthy of more than passing note from women all over the country. It is of a woman in Chicago, a Miss Margaret Murray, who kept a model boarding house for fifty years, and whose death caused very wide-spread sorrow. It is not an unknown thing in any city to have boarding house keepers who endeavor to make a comfortable home for their patrons. But, perhaps, the failures are more noted than the successes. Yet, why should this be the case? There are in every community women who wisely and carefully provide for their own families. The problem is different but not more difficult when the table is surrounded by men, who but for the kindness and good sense of the home-keeper, would be strangers to her and to each other. A big, generous heart and skill in cooking and housekeeping enabled Miss Murray to conduct her boarding house long after the time that most women lay down their work. We do not read that this boarding house keeper made a fortune and her methods do not seem to the average woman to be such as would have tended in that direction. But if the story told of her is true, every act of her life tended to make those in her little circle not only happy and comfortable but good. Here is some homely advice which the old lady gives to younger women out of the ripeness of her experience:

Miss Murray equipped herself for her vocation by study, experiment and hard work. In her old age she formulated certain rules which she claimed will, if lived up to, enable other boarding house keepers to achieve success. Here are some of them:

Don't run too much style. A man would rather have a thick, juicy beef-steak than cut glass and fancy silver.

Put everything on the table at once and let the boarders help themselves.

Cater to individual appetites. If one man wants his steak well done and another wants it rare, cook their steaks separately.

Bad coffee has been responsible for more boarding house failures than any other one thing.

Do your own cooking.

Have all men as your boarders or all women. As boarders they won't mix. Men are preferable.

Mother your men. Darn their socks and sew their buttons on, keep their clothes in repair, and attend to their laundry.

Let your boarders play poker if they want to, but stop the game at midnight, and don't let them play for high stakes.

"Why didn't you take in women as boarders?" Miss Murray was asked.

"Men and women don't mix well in a boarding house," she replied. "If men don't care for the women they don't like them around, and if they do care for them there are sure to be unpleasant complications. I decided at the outset to have only men as boarders. They are not so fussy as women."

A Difficult Problem.

The problem of the underpaid working girl is present in every modern community. The boy is paid enough to provide him with food and lodging. The rudest laborer can when his work is steady support, not only himself, but his family. But wherever girls are employed a proportion, varying according to different localities, is underpaid. We are told that the law of supply and demand regulates the price of labor as of other commodities. It this is true, the workers, at least in British Columbia, have the remedy largely in their own hands. No girl ought to work for less than enough to support her. There is skilled labor enough to give employment to every woman in the province who is obliged to work. Fathers and mothers ought to see to it that their daughters are prepared for their trade or business as well as their sons. If the girl who is serving her apprenticeship does not get enough to board and clothe her, her parents should make up the deficiency. The man who lets his daughter go into the labor market unprepared is doing her a great wrong. Once her business is learned, every girl should be self-supporting.

In that connection, not as much use is made of the business course in the High school as there should be. A girl or boy can be fitted for a position in an office either as stenographer or bookkeeper while learning many things that make them more useful accountants or typewriters. Yet shortsighted parents allow their girls to leave school with no better qualification than a High school entrance certificate. After a longer or shorter period of idleness these young people decide to take a business course. The result is a large number of workers who must wait till they have acquired with much greater trouble, the knowledge they have neglected, before they can command good wages. The private teachers are excellent, but they cannot make up for defects in education. There is a demand for more teachers and the new Normal school will put the means of professional education within the reach of all who wish it. The girl who can sew, cut and fit, has no difficulty in getting work at wages more than sufficient to support herself. In some of our stores and factories good wages are paid for good workwomen.

As was said a few days ago, domestic service affords a market for the labor of efficient and self-respecting women that is far from being supplied. In every home, every school and every church, girls should be taught that it is their duty to make themselves efficient in their chosen calling. They should be taught, too, that they ought before accepting positions, to find out whether when they have learned to do their work, they will be sufficiently paid. The elevation of the standard of woman's work depends largely, if not altogether, on women themselves and Victoria can, if she will, prevent the growth of a class of unskilled and underpaid women workers. No girl should be allowed to entertain the idea that work of any kind is a mere temporary expedient.

A School Exhibition.

The Portland Telegram, which has advocated from the first the plan of teaching horticulture to the children of the schools, has the following editorial on the school exhibit:

If it so happened that you did not go out to the Armory and have a look at the school garden exhibit, then it may be set down that you missed one of the most interesting features of the entire Festival week. There was more than potatoes and beets, and onions and carrots, lettuce and spinach, and other greens and flowers on exhibition there; these were merely the manifestations of the real thing, the awakening of new industrial ambition among those who, in a few years, will be men in this state of Oregon, was the real exhibit.

To know that that splendid showing was made by school boys and school girls—little shavers for the most part in short dresses and knee trousers—was enough to make a person lay aside for a while that old hackneyed pride for the "manhood and womanhood" of the state and give the boyhood and girlhood a chance.

We may reckon to a certainty that every boy and girl directly interested in that fine exhibit at the Armory realized a new interest in the affairs of the world, and a new sense of importance that had something substantial behind it. Through the intelligence and the industry of those boys and girls there were newly-created products tempting, useful and beautiful—wealth—real wealth that never existed before. And not only was it to the boys and girls directly interested that this sense of exaltation appealed—the children of every prize-winning school were participants; and more and more of them will be ambitious participants in the future.

Already has this business of school gardening given added fame to the city of Portland. And that is another thing for the children of the schools to consider, namely, that they are actually and actively engaged in making the city in which they live more widely known. The sentiment of it all is peculiarly beautiful and impressive. The feature of school garden exhibits deserves to be made stronger at every Festival.

A Necessity

Before the next school term opens there ought to be provision made for defective children in Victoria. There are in some of the classes, boys and girls who are getting no good from the school and whose influence over their companions is bad. These children are no more fit to be inmates of the detention home or the orphanage than to be pupils of the grades. They want special teaching of a very high order. If they do not get it they will become confirmed in habits which will make them a menace to society. Some, perhaps most of them, can be taught to use their hands and so fitted to earn their living. Their moral sense can be developed so that they may be in future safe associates for their fellows. If neither or both of these things cannot be done, the state should take charge of the poor children and keep them from harming themselves or others. There may not be in Victoria many such children. There are some, and if there were only one, he or she should not be neglected. Bad children are cared for, and we have made full provision for normal and even dull children. But no attempt has yet been made to care for defectives.

There are institutions in other cities provided for these victims of what is the saddest of all fates, and no question of difficulty or expense should prevent Victoria from making

JOHNSON AGREES TO SMALL RING

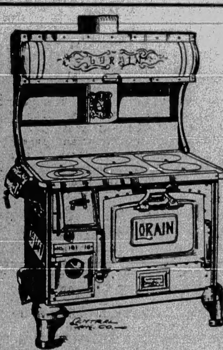

Champion Refers to Flynn as Upstart—An Exchange of Verbal Courtesies

EAST LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 20.—Jack Johnson, after some objection, agreed this afternoon to the use of a 17-foot ring for the fight between himself and Jim Flynn on July 4.

Johnson learned yesterday that the ring was under the regular size, and objected on the ground that a small ring was more suited to Flynn's rough-and-tumble style of fighting than to his own.

Johnson's change of attitude came when he heard that Flynn had said that he could whip Johnson [illegible]

Motorists Must Decide on "Monogram" Oil

Dear Sir—

When an oil dealer tells you his oil is "Pennsylvania Base," do you know just HOW MUCH of a recommendation that is?

Many oils are made from light, watery oil refined from Ohio, Illinois, Texas, California, etc., crudes (most inferior lubricants) and blended with a small percentage of heavy Pennsylvania stock oil.

This means an ADULTERATED product, but is the foundation of their claim of "Pennsylvania Base."

MONOGRAM OIL is made ENTIRELY from Pennsylvania crudes.

May we lubricate your car?

Yours very truly,

NEWS OF THE CITY

Hindu's Remains Cremated—The remains of the Hindu, who was killed by an explosion while working on the B. C. Electric Railway, Saanich extension, were cremated on Wednesday.

New Island Highway—The official gazette this week contains notice of the establishment of a public highway 66 feet wide around the north end and west arm of Shawnigan lake.

Library Changes—The work of altering the structural arrangement of the free library was begun yesterday. This will, as has already been described, provide an excellent magazine room for readers, in which files of back numbers can be kept.

Y. M. C. A. Harriers — The usual weekly run of the Y. M. C. A. Harriers will take place on Monday evening next. Today the sale by auction takes place of the site adjoining the association's building on Blanchard street. There is a reserve price on the property of $25,000.

Mine Rescue Station—Tenders will be received by the minister of public works until noon of Wednesday, July 3, for the erection of a mine rescue station at Fernie. Tenders will be received until noon, July 17, for the erection at Coquitlam of seven residences for officials of the institution.

On Hospital Board—The five representatives which the city is entitled to elect to serve upon the board of directors of the Royal Jubilee hospital will be appointed at Monday night's meeting of the city council. Last year's civic representatives were Messrs. J. A. Mara, R. S. Day, D. E. Campbell, F. W. Vincent and Harold B. Robertson.

Single Tax Lecture—Single tax and tax reform generally were the subjects of a lecture delivered last night by Mr. William Atkinson, the secretary of the Tax Reform League of Seattle, at the K. of P. hall. Mr. Atkinson added materially in securing the election of a single tax mayor in Seattle for the present year.

To Be Closed to Traffic—On and after the 24th inst., and until further notice, the Gorge Bridge, near Washington street, will be closed to traffic. This is necessitated by the construction of the new concrete bridge at that point, the old wooden structure requiring to be demolished. Traffic to the Gorge on the north of the arm will be by way of Burnside road to Washington street, and thence to the Gorge road.

Constables For the North—Several transfers of provincial constables have been ordered following the increasing demand for men in the northern sections because of the opening of the fishing season. Constables H. Warburton, who has been stationed in Victoria, will go to Fort Essington; Constables H. Huggins and Malcome McInnes will be stationed at Hazelton and Constable Charles Doolittle at Prince Rupert.

Inquiries Flow In—The mail of the last two days has brought many enquiries into the office of the Vancouver Island Development League from South Africa. A nurse at the head of the surgical ward in the Johannesburg hospital is desirous of moving to this province, and a fellow citizen of hers would like a partnership in a restaurant or cafe business here. A corporal in the Cheshire regiment writes from Jubbalpore in India, saying his service is shortly coming to an end, and that he wishes to move here as he has heard so much about British Columbia of late.

Draft New Regulations—New rules and regulations drafted by Fire Chief Davis for the guidance of members of the department have been prepared and, following approval by the city council, will be put into force. Heretofore regulations adopted by the chief have been effective, but certain changes have been deemed necessary, and hereafter the new orders will prevail. The council will be asked to sanction the purchase of a smoke prevention helmet for use by the department in entering smoke-filled premises. The cost of the helmet and accessories is $80.

The Police Court—The charge made against Owen Davis, a hackman, of overcharging, failed in the police court yesterday. Davis, who had been engaged by a private detective to take him and another man to a house on Parry street, where a raid was afterwards made as a result of information secured on the trip, charged the spotters $3 for the ride, and they laid information charging that he violated the streets bylaw by charging more than fifty cents to drive two persons within a radius of two miles. Mr. R. C. Lowe, for the defence, maintained that the engagement was a special one, the fare having been agreed to and paid beforehand, and was of a nature excepted by the by-law, and this contention was maintained. It transpired during the hearing of the case that special detectives employed by the police department are paid by a commission on fines in convictions resulting from their work. Kate Sheppard and Lola Hall were charged with vagrancy, the former being remanded until today to secure legal advice, and the latter fined $25 with option of a month's imprisonment.

Companies Incorporated — Roman have been issued to the following extra-provincial companies: Reindeer Ltd.; Bordens Condensed Milk Co., Ltd.; Borden Milk Co., Ltd.; St. Charles Condensing Co., Ltd.; Truro Condensed Milk Co., Ltd. Registration has been granted to the following extra-provincial companies: C. M. C. Stewart Sulphur Co.; Keystone Type Foundry of California; Seattle Hardware Co. Certificates of incorporation have been issued to: Alberni Hydro-Electric Power Co., Ltd.; Alcock and Downing, Ltd.; Beaver Club; British Columbia Colonization and Townsites Co., Ltd.; Economic Heating and Manufacturing Co. of B. C., Ltd.; Eden Land Co., of East Kootenay, Ltd.; Fairmount Club, Ltd.; Fraternal Unity of the World; Green & Burdick Bros.; Ground Hog Collieries, Ltd.; J. J. Frantz Construction Co., Ltd.; Quatsino Social Club; View Street Land Syndicate, Ltd. Licenses have been issued to the Commercial Union Fire Insurance Co., of New York, Equity Fire Insurance Co., of Canada; Manitoba Assurance Co.; New Jersey Fire Insurance Co.; North British and Mercantile In-

Farmers Organize—A charter of incorporation has been issued to the Graham Island East Coast Farmers' Institute. The head office will be at Launhill.

W. C. T. U. Men's Mission—The life and works of Frances E. Willard was the subject presented at the Literary Society of the W. C. T. U. Men's Mission on Tuesday evening. A large number were present. Miss Saunders, of Victoria West, is providing a programme of Scotch selections for tomorrow evening's concert.

A Profitable Rain—There is little hay down in the south of the Saanich peninsula at present, and consequently the farmers stand to benefit immensely by the heavy rain of yesterday. The strawberry season, it is said, is likely to be of short duration this year, the long spell of fine weather having forced the plants to their utmost bearing capacity.

Beautifying School Grounds—Mr. McLean, principal of the George Jay school, has not waited for the filling in of the grounds to begin the adornment of his school. He has planted flowers and a beautiful little lawn. As the season advances there will be a brave showing of color. Mr. McLean is a believer in the influence of beauty over the children.

Result of Shooting Restrictions—The boldness of the cock pheasant on Saanich peninsula is very noticeable. Yesterday two birds were to be seen sitting on stumps watching the passing traffic, one on the shore of the inlet and the other by the roadside. This would not have been remarkable in hens, but it is not often that one has an opportunity of looking an old cock in the face. A glimpse of his tail is generally the utmost he exhibits to view as he disappears into covert.

Hindus Under Arrest—Wanted in Vancouver on a charge of perjury, two Hindus, Massa Singh and Mela Singh, were arrested here yesterday by Detectives Murray, Handley, Heather and Fry in a house occupied by compatriots on Douglas street. The arrest was made upon receipt of a wire from the Vancouver police authorities, who allege that the two, in a case arising out of a real estate deal, testified falsely. They will be taken back to the mainland by a Vancouver officer who will arrive today.

St. Mary's Guild Sale—A sale of work was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. W. Gibson, York place, Oak Bay, by the ladies of St. Mary's church guild in aid of the debt on the church. The gathering proved very successful, in spite of the inclement weather. Fancy work and candies were sold, while there was also a fish pond. Afternoon tea was dispensed, as well as ice-cream and strawberries and cream. Among the ladies assisting were Mrs. Arthur Crease, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Fraser, Miss Raper, Mrs. Hardie, Mrs. Floyd Mrs. Jobson, Mrs. Homer and Mrs. Coulson. Mrs. Roper opened the sale.

Altar Society At Home—The ladies of the Altar society of St. Andrew's cathedral gave an at home yesterday afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. Hallam, Beacon street. Various contests added greatly to the enjoyment of the proceedings. The Misses Fraser, Macdonald and McQuade dispensed afternoon tea, and other ladies taking part included Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. D. McConnan, Mrs. Lineham and Mrs. George Fraser. In the evening an interesting musical programme was given, among the performers being Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. McConnan, Mr. A. McKenzie, Mr. Dalzell, Mr. Hall, Mr. Olivier and Mr. Maurice Atkinson. The proceeds were devoted to the funds of the society.

B. C. Water Interests—The board of investigation, water rights branch, will meet at Ashcroft on July 31, Grand Forks, August 6; Greenwood, August 7; Princeton, August 9; Keremeos, August 10, Fairview, August 12, and Penticton, August 13. Mr. C. H. Dunbar has been appointed by the minister of lands to assist the holders of water rights in the preparation of their statements of claims. He will be at Kamloops, August 5; Greenwood, August 27, Enderby, June 28; Glenemma, June 29, Salmon Arm, July 2; Ducks, July 3; Savonna, July 4; Ashcroft, July 5; Kamloops, July 6. Mr. Dunbar will be provided with the necessary forms, but the claimants should bring a sketch showing their land and the streams with the point of diversion marked. They should land and the stream with the point of diversion marked. They should also bring any papers they may have in the way of deeds, papers and entries.

CITY ENGINEER WILL REPORT ON PAVING

Favors Undertaking Improvements Upon Trunk Roads First, Where Possible—Urge Start on Douglas Street

Among the recommendations which City Engineer Rust will make at this afternoon's meeting of the streets committee will be one to the effect that the work of paving Douglas street, as provided for some months ago, should be commenced immediately. This thoroughfare has been delayed because of the failure of the city to arrive at a settlement with every owner relative to the price to be paid for the thirty-two feet taken from frontages on the east side of the street for street widening purposes.

All but four of the owners have accepted the amounts arranged, but in view of the fact that the city can legally proceed at once with the widening scheme, leaving the amounts to be paid for future settlement, Mr. Rust will urge that the work be undertaken so that at least a considerable portion may be completed before the next wet season sets in. In fact the necessity of carrying out the improvement works already authorized for a number of the trunk roads has impressed itself upon Mr. Rust, who is of the opinion that the downtown streets should be completed in preference to outside thoroughfares whereon traffic is much less important.

Of the large number of streets which the city council sometime ago decided should be paved and for which it was proposed to call for tenders for paving, to the amount of approximately 211,000 square yards, each has been considered by the city engineer and the report to be submitted this afternoon will deal with them. Some of these streets are not in a position to be proceeded with at once, and in cases where preliminary legal difficulties will be encountered by the city no contracts will be let, preference being given to thoroughfares on which work can be commenced without delay. It is expected that about 150,000 square yards, or perhaps a little more, can be let practically at once.

Relative to the Douglas street work a deputation of owners of property on that thoroughfare will wait upon the streets committee this afternoon with a view of urging upon the council the necessity of an early start upon the scheme.

REDCOATS COME TO MACAULAY CAMP

104th Regiment, of Westminster, to March in Today—Arrangements for Dominion Day—Annual Camp Sports

The advance party of the redcoats from the mainland who come today to join the artillerymen of the Fifth Regiment, the permanent forces, and 15th Field Ambulance of New Westminster at the headquarters camp at Macaulay Plains, marched into camp yesterday morning to prepare the way for the arrival of the 104th Regiment, which will arrive on the C. P. R. steamer from Vancouver today, and will march into camp. With the arrival of the redcoats, another cluster of tents will be added to the growing canvas village on Macaulay Plains, and the infantrymen will spend twelve days undergoing their training. Brigadier General Colin Mackenzie and Major Hopwood, his A. D. C., will visit Macaulay tonight to watch them march in.

Tonight a band concert will be given at Macaulay camp by the Fifth Regiment C. G. A. and it is anticipated that a large number of citizens will take advantage of the occasion to visit the camp.

Preparations are being made for the annual camp sports which will be held tomorrow, and the various messes will be at home, and many visitors are expected to be present at the camp. A number of good events have been provided, and it is expected that the sports will be given even a greater success than they were last year.

Good progress is being made by the various units with their training, and it is expected that No. 2 company will begin work on Monday with aiming ammunition. The annual firing competitions of the three artillery companies will be held at the close of next week.

A drum head church service will be held at the camp on Sunday morning, the services being conducted by Rev. William Barton, chaplain of the Fifth Regiment.

Colonel Duff Stewart, who will command the invading force from the Mainland, which will make a descent on Victoria during the early morning of July 1, was in the city yesterday. A feature of the sham battle will be that the manoeuvring will be unrehearsed on each side, and the officers in command will do as they think best, according to the situations which may arise. While the plans of the enemy are necessarily "secret," it may be stated to facilitate the movements of the defenders that the "foreign troops" will land at Cowichan Bay, near the hotel on the south side. Their number will be between 500 and 600 officers and men.

The home troops will be those at present in camp at Macaulay Plains and Esquimalt, numbering something over 300 all told. The defenders will have the advantage of knowing the country. Shortly after daylight on the morning of Dominion day, fighting will commence, and expert advice says that it will be in the neighborhood of Goldstream. When the struggle is over, and no matter which side wins, all the troops will return to Macaulay Plains where the "enemy," either as guests or prisoners, will spend the afternoon and evening, leaving again on the trip back to the Mainland by the evening boat.

RE-ORGANIZATION

Re-organization of the works department of the city is proceeding apace, a number of changes having been made by Chief Engineer Rust since his advent to office. Mr. A. E. Forman, recently appointed assistant to the engineer with special oversight of outside work, has assumed his new duties, having practically completed his work of supervision of the repairs to Smith's Hill reservoir, and hereafter he will have charge of the carrying out of the public works under direct instructions from Mr. Rust.

A general shake-up in the construction department has taken place, a number of employees engaged in that department having had their services dispensed with, while others have been transferred to other work. The system of inspection on public works is also being investigated and changes will probably be made in the near future.

The whole department is in process of receiving a thorough overhauling and re-organization, with a view to making it more effective and better able to deal with the great amount of work which must be undertaken by the city.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Architects in Convention—The first convention of the B. C. Society of Architects commences in the Alexandra Club rooms this morning, and will continue two days. This morning officers will be elected. The principal session of the convention will be during the afternoon, when the registration bill will be before the convention dealing with the securing next session of an act governing the profession." Several social functions have been arranged for the meeting.

Congregational Church Meeting—At a meeting of the members of the congregation of the First Congregational church, held last evening, with the pastor, Rev. Hermon Carson, in the chair, it was decided to accept the plans submitted by the architects for the new institutional church on the corner of Mason and Quadra streets, subject to any alterations which might be deemed expedient later. The committee on subscriptions reported the gratifying news that a good sum had been promised already, and the church committee congratulated them on the work they had done in this connection. The present Congregational church, which is all too small to suit the requirements of its adherents, was built about ten years ago, and is the only church of that denomination on Vancouver Island. There are two Congregational churches in Vancouver, and it is expected that a third will be built in the near future.

RECORDS OF THE RIVAL ATHLETES

Figures Showing Marks Attained by Representatives of Canada and United States in Recent Olympic Trials

A comparison of the records made by the Canadians and Americans at their respective trial meets for the Olympic games is not encouraging to enthusiastic sportsmen residing on this side of the line. The Canadians have not done as well as their cousins to the south, but then Jack Tait and others who watched the Montreal sports state that the athletes who competed there were handicapped by a strong wind. Mr. Tait also claims that the small party of Canadians, who left for Stockholm may be counted upon to do as well in proportion to their numbers as the representatives of other nations.

The comparative figures, however, are interesting. They are as follows:

Records Made

The Western meet at Chicago tied the Olympic record at 100 and 200 metres in 10 4-5 and 21 3-5. The 1500 metres was lowered a second in 4.02 2-5. Nicholson, one of the best hurdlers in the country, lost his shoe and had to retire.

Two world's records and one American record were broken and one Olympic mark tied at the Eastern Olympic try-outs in the Harvard stadium.

They were: Wright in the pole vault, 13 ft. 2 1-4 in.; Kiviat in the 1500 metres, in 3.55 4-5, a second faster than his former mark. He ran the mile out in 4.15 3-5, only a fifth over Jones' wonderful record of a year ago. Kramer bettered all records at 5 1-4 miles in the 10,000 metres run in 31.43 3-5, and did the six miles in 30.43, a new record.

German Trials

The German trials at Leipsic showed the following:

100 metres, 11 1-10 sec.; 200 metres, 23 4-5 sec.; 400 metres, 53 sec.; 800 metres, 2 min.; 1500 metres, 4.19 9-10; 3000 metres, 9.18 1-5; 10,000 metres, 33.45 1-10 (new German record); 110 metres, hurdles, 16 4-5 sec.; 10,000 metres walk, 47.01 7-10; high jump, 5 ft. 10 7-8 in.; discus, 105 ft. 4 in.; shot, 37 ft. 2 3-8 in.; javelin, 131 ft. 10 5-8 in.; pole vault, 11 ft. 2 3-4 in.; hop, step and jump, 44 ft. 8 5-8 in.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 20.—Victoria appears to have Vancouver's gifted athletes on the down grade. The Bees stung them again today for the third straight time this week, and by virtue of their victory hopped up alongside of the Seattle Giants in the race for the pennant. The score was 4-0, and it just about represents the showing made. Inability to hit the offerings of Wilson cost the Beavers the game and relegated them to the second division, where they are tied with the Spokane Indians. Wilson did not appear to have much, but what he did dispense proved puzzling for the champions, whom he let down with two hits, both of them of the scratch variety. And while the Beavers were swinging in vain, the Bees were annihilating the offerings of Belford. They got to him for an even ten hits, four of them for extra sacks.

Only one Vancouver runner reached third base during the matinee, and this was in the third inning, when Sepulveda worked a pass, advanced on an infield out and went to third on an outfield fly. This was the only occasion in which the champions got a look at the third bag. At all other times they were either retired in order or tied to the primary bag. "Kiddo" Wilson had them all tagged, and his support was gilt-edged. That is the story in a nutshell. The enemy garnered ten hits, but outside of that only two other balls were hit to the outfield, while the champions had the misfortune to have their hard drives grabbed by the fielders.

BEACON HILL NINE TO PLAY CHEMAINUS

Splendid Amateur Baseball Game Promised at Royal Athletic Park on Saturday Afternoon

A baseball game of exceptional interest is promised when the Chemainus and Beacon Hill senior amateur nines face each other on Saturday afternoon at the Royal Athletic grounds.

There always has been a spirit of rivalry between these two clubs. Already this season the Hills have visited the up-island squad on its own grounds where they went down to defeat after an exciting and a very close battle. The Chemainus fans, in which class come the greater part of its population, confidently believe that their representatives can repeat the performance in Victoria. Many are coming down to see it done. The Hills, of course, have a large number of supporters, so that there should be a great deal of boosting.

The Hills will line-up as follows.

BASEBALL NOTES

Only in Vancouver was J. Pluvius good tempered enough to allow the ball players to perform yesterday.

Three straight for the Victoria Bees up to date and now they are on a level with the Seattle Giants.

Kiddo Wilson was in the best of form, the Beavers being able to gather but two safe hits and they were of the scratch variety.

Hurler Belford was not seen at his best yesterday against his old team mates.

"Big Fellow" Meek seems to have hit upon a happy arrangement of the Bees' infield. Friene did better yesterday at the third corner, and the others must have been going fine judging by the box score.

Jack Brennan will probably be held by Tacoma as utility infielder. Mike Lynch has not been carrying a man for that job.

Figures furnished by the Tacoma club at the time of the sale of the franchise show that total receipts last year were $42,800 and expenses $47,400, a net loss of about $4600 on the year's business. The salary list was about $3,300 a month.

Erving Kanthlener, who will join Victoria's pitching staff at an early date, got a try-out with the Chicago White Sox last fall and was then sent to Dubuque, where he refused to report. He has made a great record with Santa Clara this spring.

Hosea Siner, who left Seattle for the east with the understanding that he was too ill to play ball, may be trying to put one over on Dugdale. A note in a Danville, Ill., paper says he expects to sign with the Danville team in the Three-I League.

AMATEUR BALL

The Capitals and Arcades will figure in a league match at the Royal Athletic park this evening. This is expected to be a good game, as both teams will play a better class of ball on this diamond. The teams will line up as follows:

Arcades—		Capitals—

POWER CRUISERS DISTANCE RACE

Annual Competition Under the Auspices of P.I.P.B.A. Will Start From Vancouver and Finish at Tacoma

All preperations have been made for the fifth annual British Columbia-Puget Sound long distance race for power cruisers. This announcement is made by the Pacific International Power Boat Association under whose auspices the event will be conducted. It will start from Vancouver on Monday, July 1st, and will finish the following day at Tacoma.

The start will be made from a stake boat anchored off the end of the pier in English Bay, leaving the stake boat to port, and the boats may start any time between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., the full handicap being figured at the finish of the race. Each captain must file with the racing committee by 9 a. m. of July 1, the time he elects to start.

This method of starting will give each navigating officer his choice of tides over the entire route and it will be well for each to figure closely on all currents before determining his starting time.

The course from English Bay leads to Port Angeles, Wash., the route to be followed being optional. In Port Angeles harbor a stakeboat will be maintained, which must be rounded. From there the course leads eastward around Point Wilson up Puget Sound and around Vashon island, leaving the island to port, and finishing on a line from the Tacoma Yacht Club house to a point directly across from it in the Tacoma city waterway. A stake boat will be maintained off Point Robinson on the east side of Vashon island, which will be passed by all boats going northward in circling Vashoon Island.

Two stakeboats may be rounded either to port or starboard, but masters of each contesting boat must report his boat by name, number and master's name to those aboard the stakeboat. The report of the committee aboard the stakeboats will be wired to Tacoma, and the report of these committees will be accepted as final in the awarding of prizes.

The Port Angeles stakeboat will display during daylight hours a large ball, red with white band, and a pennant of the Pacific International Power Boat Association, and at night will display lights arranged from the top downwards as follows: Red, white, blue, white. It will be anchored at the spot designated on the Port Angeles harbor chart displayed on the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club bulletin board previous to the race. The stakeboat off Pt. Robinson will fly the association pennant.

The race will be handicapped according to the P. I. P. B. A. formula, and boats must be measured by the assistant official measurer of the association at their home port. These measurement cards must then be forwarded to Commodore Knox Walkem, Winch building, Vancouver, and must be in his hands by Saturday, June 29.

SOCCER ELEVEN WILL STAY HOME

Victoria's Crack Football Squad Will Not Compete for People's Shield at Winnipeg—Funds Not Forthcoming

Failure to raise the funds necessary to cover transportation and other expenses makes it impossible for the Victoria senior football team to take part in the annual people's shield competition at Winnipeg. Those who identified themselves with the move to take a local eleven to Manitoba's metropolis to make the effort to add the Canadian soccer championship to the laurels the west has gained in athletic struggles against representatives of the east have had to admit defeat. They have not the money needed themselves, the city council granted such a small sum that it is considered doubtful wether it wil pay the expenses already incurred in the endeavor to make the arrangements, and the provincial government has found it impossible to accede to the request for support. Consequently Victoria will not be represented at the tournament which takes place from July 13 to 20 inclusive.

With regard to the threatened trouble in conducting this year's competition recent reports indicate that everything has been peacefully settled. A notice issued from Winnipeg annbunces that secretaries of clubs participating must stand prepared at a moment's notice to produce the amateur cards of their players.

The People's Shield will remain the championship trophy for Canada. Information has been received in Winnipeg that the Duke of Connaught has not been approached nor has he offered a championship trophy. The news from Toronto on this subject was incorrect.

For the competition in Winnipeg Prince Albert is sending a large delegation, including the ex-mayor and other prominent Prince Albertans, to encourage their famous team.

The series will be played on the knockout system. Regarding the competition, Trustee Geo. A. Parker made this statement: "All the teams competing in the People's Shield must be in a position if called upon to produce their amateur status. There are three teams at issue, Hillhursts of Calgary, Victoria Thistles and Nanaimo. The former, I understand, have been reinstated by the Alberta branch of the Amateur Union of Canada, and there should be no difficulty in Victoria and Nanaimo securing reinstatment from the B. C. A. A. U. of C.

"It is generally recognized that soccer is not sufficiently advanced for professionalism. Moreover, the People's Shield was donated for amateur teams."

Mr. Parker, who has promoted six shield tournaments and two Corinthian tours during the past seven years, is returning to the old country next week and may not be further identified with Canadian football.

FISHING BLACK BASS ON ISLAND

Petition Will Be Submitted to Provincial Authorities to Have Open Season for This Species Begin in July

A petition is expected to be laid before the proper provincial authorities requesting that the black bass, planted in Vancouver Island waters years ago, be dealt with apart from the trout in the fishing regulations.

Those acquainted with the peculiarities of this, one of the gamest of sporting fish, are expressing keen regret over the onslaughts being made on it by more than a few of Victoria's votaries of the rod and line. They have held their judgment in check, however, because of the well-founded belief that the majority of the parties in question do not know that this is the spawning season for that specie. Ignorance, it is thought, can in this case be pleaded as an excuse with some justification, as the black bass is a stranger in British Columbia and not many fishermen know his habits thoroughly.

Some local disciples of Isaak Walton, after having spent some profitable hours on either Langford or Florence lakes, in both of which the bass were planted and where they have done exceedingly well, were told that it was impossible to estimate the harm they had done in catching them at the present time. They indignantly denied that there was anything unsportsmanlike in taking bass. Those they had caught showed no sign of recent spawning. Furthermore, the season was open and they were quite within their rights in doing so. It was explained, however, that the bass is not like the trout. Its spawning season was not over until July and it might be that by taking fish now they had left a large amount of fry to the tender mercies of marauding fish. That this was the situation was proved to them by the highest authorities and they then admitted their mistake and promised to refrain from casting a fly in these waters until later in the year.

Mr. T. Bickford, a well known Victoria sportsman whose residence is in the vicinity of Colwood, is an ardent protector of the black bass. Parties have approached him for the purpose of hiring boats for fishing purposes and invariably he has told them that he would not abet black bass fishing until July at the earliest. This is the date set in Washington state for the opening of the bass season, and it is the intention of those who have the matter in hand to recommend that the provincial government take the same action.

BASEBALL PLAYERS ARE NOT SLAVES

Statement Frequently Made so Unsound as Not to Deserve Serious Attention

The statement that baseball players are slaves is too unsound both in fact and theory to merit serious attention. The national game has worked steadfastly and sincerely for the best interest of all concerned, and the welfare of the individual, so far as circumstances would permit, has been catered to in every particular. The large salaries which successful players have received is too well known to need emphasis here, and is in itself a sufficient denial of the charge that baseball players are slaves. To anyone who has been in a position to know, the numberless demands for entrance into the ranks of big league players show a striking desire on the part of many leading athletes to become enslaved, if the lot of the big league player is slavery. It goes without saying that, almost with no exceptions, the big league player is making more money in his profession than in any other business open to him, and that on the whole, major league players have every cause to be satisfied with their salaries.

The remarks made concerning the people who organize leagues of their own apart from the present well-founded system of professional ball clubs does not, of course, bear at all upon the probable success of such ventures. I have said that the opportunity is open to all, but it by no means follows that all such attempts would be crowned with success. The organization of a new league is one of the most difficult of proceedings and requires, in addition to great executive ability, unlimited hard work and almost unlimited capital. The phrase originated by a distinguished American to the effect that "you cannot transfer the fruits of industry to the lap of indolence" holds good in attempting to engage in baseball as a means of livelihood. In other words, invidious and disgruntled persons who have failed in their efforts to enlist capital in a new baseball venture cannot hope to destroy or tear down the property rights and invested interests of more successful persons, purely as an act of reprisal, as was recently attempted by those unable to engage successfully in baseball as a business.—Baseball Magazine.

ROBBER BEATEN TO DEATH

Knocked Overboard From Launch His Victims Kill Him as He Rises to Surface

STOCKTON, Cal., June 20.—A desperate robber who held up passengers on two river launches en route to Stockton last night about 40 miles down stream, was beaten to death after he had shot an engineer named San Griscom through the shoulder. The body was brought here tonight. The robber got aboard the launch Gwendoline at Stone's landing with his face blackened, and holding up two pistols, took all the valuables the passengers had. Then he forced the engineer to run the launch to a landing and another launch coming into sight he put all the men ashore except the engineer and compelled him to blow the alarm whistle and run alongside the approaching boat. Then he robbed the passengers there in the same way robbing twenty-two men all told.

As the robber was backing away engineer Griscom struck him and knocked him overboard. As the robber came up he pointed one pistol and shot Griscom. The passengers picked up irons and beat the robber to death while he was in the water and he sank. The body was reached with grappling irons and brought here. In the pockets of the dead robber were the watches and money he had stolen.

"BUNKER HILL" GUN

Colonel Neilson Says Cannon Has Always Belonged to the English

QUEBEC, June 20.—An interesting letter in connection with the Bunker Hill gun has been written to a local paper by Colonel Neilson, the president of the Quebec Literary and Historical society. It clears away a good deal of the confusion and adds color to the theory that the inscription to the effect that the gun had been captured at Bunker Hill and was placed on it by a subaltern gives an erroneous impression.

In his letter Colonel Neilson says: "The so-called Bunker Hill gun has engaged the attention of the press and the public for some weeks. The real story of this cannon appears to be unknown. I am one of the few remaining who do know its history, and therefore I feel justified in making a statement regarding it."

Colonel Neilson then goes on to say that the gun has always belonged to the English, and was only styled as the one captured at Bunker Hill to make it interesting to American visit-

Federal Aid to Industries Shown in Returns Made to Ottawa

OTTAWA, June 20.—Bounties paid upon wire during the fiscal year of 1911-12 amounted to $166,750 which, at $6 per ton, means that the industry produced during the year about 28,000 tons. As the bounties expired June 20, 1911, these represented only three months. During the year $178,288 in bounties was paid on 27,823,221 pounds of lead produced in Canada. The bounties paid on Manila fibre amounted to $50,556, a small increase as compared with the previous year.

No Cessation in the Demand For Lots in

PANAMA PARK

The price and high quality of this property keeps the demand at concert pitch every day, despite the fact that nearly three hundred lots have been sold to Victoria buyers. Enquiries are coming in daily from Vancouver and other mainland cities.

Property in Vancouver, the same distance from the city centre as Panama Park is from the local city hall, is selling today at prices ranging from $3,000 to $7,000. Victoria growth is no whit less than that of Vancouver this year. Work out for yourself an estimate of the value of lots in Panama Park before the inception of 1913. You can buy lots today in this subdivision at small town prices. You will never have a like opportunity in Victoria again.

Here is property within easy distance of the business section of the city. The B. C. Electric runs right through it. The streets are being graded and the sidewalks laid down at absolutely no cost to the purchaser of "Panama" lots. Houses are in course of construction and the big programme of improvements will be completed within a couple of weeks.

To outside purchasers a written guarantee is given, as to the quality of the lots.

Property adjacent to the farthest extremity of Panama Park is selling at prices 20 per cent higher.

Let us take you out to Panama Park and show you the redeeming features of the layout, and you can, at the same time see for yourself the activities now under way.

SPECIAL

TO REAL ESTATE AGENTS—FOR BEST RESULTS ADVERTISE IN THE COLONIST

A few years ago Paul Jones went to visit another well known writer, who lives in Queen Anne's Mansions at Battersea Park. He went out in a London Gondola and enjoyed exceedingly the drive through South Kensington, skirting Hyde Park as far as Knight's Bridge, and through Cadogan and Sloane Squares, past the famous Chelsea Hospital and over the Chelsea Bridge to Battersea Park. He was delighted with this park, and admired exceedingly the lovely mansions facing it. These mansions, as many of our readers are aware, are what are known as apartment houses.

To his great surprise, he found that two-thirds were empty.

Looking from the drawingroom window of his friend's flat, watching hundreds of children playing on the green, young men and maidens in boats on the tiny lake, or playing tennis, or just sitting under the trees, reading chapters of eloquence in each other's eyes, watching the riding masters teaching their pupils all that was at least worth knowing of horsemanship, noting with delight the beautiful flower beds all set out on this June afternoon with exotic and hot-house flowers, he marvelled that every flat in the whole road had not been taken. When he heard how cheap the rents were he marvelled still more.

Where then, was the secret? Tenants could go to and from the most fashionable parts of the West End, via Chelsea Bridge, and never pass through a slum or poor street the whole way. Furthermore, the fact that they were so close by was not a factor in keeping those mansions unoccupied, for are there not slums just as near the hotels Cecil and Savoy? It was not the close proximity of dirty streets and poorly-clad people that was responsible for their emptiness, but it was the fact that they could be seen, which makes all the difference.

People who are looking for a home realize that the windows through which they look when dressing three hundred and more times a year, should face something worth looking at.

How can one expect a man to be cheerful all day, if, first thing in the morning, he looks at sugalor and misery? How can one expect him to be intelligent and bright during his day of work if the first thing he sees in the morning is a mass of brick and mortar? How can he possibly increase his own business or his employer's through his brilliant innovations when the constantly changing view he gets from his bedroom window is the change of linen on his neighbor's clothes line? No! It is more important that he should have a pretty view from his bedroom window, when his brain is fresh to retain first impressions, than from his dining or drawing-room windows.

Before leaving, however, he discovered the reason of the failure of the company who had spent over one million dollars in building these magnificent flats, to get tenants to take them, or to remain long after they had taken them.

His friend was anxious that Paul Jones should see all over his flat. He was delighted at the enthusiasm his friend displayed over his home, and hoped that he might be able to persuade him to come and live there, too.

Now Paul Jones is one of the greatest sociological experts in the world, and the minute he entered his friend's bedroom he knew why those mansions were a financial failure.

Battersea Park Road is bounded on one side by the park, after which it takes its name, and on the other side by three miles of enormous mansions, built closely together.

But at the back of those mansions run innumerable poor little lanes, I had almost said alleys, full of the very poorest order of boarding houses, where the butcher boy and the bricklayer's mate rent their "furnished" rooms for seventy-five cents per week, payable in advance. They all run into Battersea Road, the shopping road for these houses where bad meat, light bread and adulterated milk are sold to these poor people; every second house being a very low class beer shop. Beyond that lie miles and miles of slums.

But we would not like our dinner guests, or afternon tea callers to look from our rooms on ugly views, we want nothing to jar them when our guests! Quite right! That is the height of hospitality, therefore make sure when you buy a lot for your home to be, that you buy where you can get a nice view from all sides.

That, you may say is difficult! Where is this greatly to be desired piece of ground to be found? Why, in glorious "Gorge Grove," of course, and it is so limited in extent that if you are not quick you won't get a chance to buy at all, but if you hurry up, and get two lots, you will be able to sell the one you don't want for quadruple its present price, in less than twelve months' time.

Just call on The Griffith Company, rooms 5, 7, 9 and 11 Mahon Building, 1112 Government Street.

They will take you out to see it, but get a move on. Do it now!! When it is all sold you will be like the rest of your friends, like most failures in life, you will say:

If I could have foreseen——?

Who would have thought——?

What an ass I was to miss——?

AMUSEMENTS

The Empress Theatre—Three or four of the acts at the Empress this week were yesterday given applause of unusual volume and sincerity. They apparently furnished exactly the sort of entertainment the crowds were looking for. That vaudeville audiences are completely wrapped up in well-played ragtime was shown by the tenacity with which the throngs yesterday held on to the Olivotti Troubadours. These two boys, in south-of-Europe get-up, duetted all the ragtime they knew on the guitar and violin, and they had to hide from the audiences before they could finally get away. William J. McIntyre, son of the real minstrel, is a big hit in his rapid cross-fire talk with Hal Groves. The two men score all sorts of laughs. Harlan E. Knight presents a sketch, "The Chalk Line." Knight has a wonderful makeup and is a fine representative of a style of rustic comedy which few other men on the stage today are playing so well. He is given ample and sympathetic assistance by Lillian Volkman, his former leading woman. The other man, James McDuff, adequately supports Knight, especially in the dancing. The setting and the bass solo were again features. The sketch drew a hearty curtain. Two or Harry Cutler's songs, "Alexander" in Cockney and the Lashwood latchkey ode, went very well. Mr. Cutler is a clever comedian, and he keeps the audience amused all the while he is on the stage. The Four Mayos supply a roller skating act which includes both trick and comic skating.

Crystal Theatre—Today's change of pictures are full of interest. "Exposed by the Dictograph" is a Selig drama. Everyone knows that a dictograph was used in several cases lately by detectives to get evidence. This picture gives a very vivid object lesson on it and how it is used. It is a good detective story, in which secret service men get evidence against a senator and a briber. "The Runaway Motor Car" is a Pathe subject that is very exciting; "Tommy's Obsession" is a Pathe comedy; "The Tenderfoot Messenger" is an Essanay Western comedy. When you see a Western comedy, as a rule they are a roar from the start, and this is no exception to the rule. "A Bucktown Romance" is a Kalem comedy. Darkies, a whole village of them, with an heiress widow and two black swains, one of whom owns the barber shop. The whole atmosphere of this comedy is fresh and will please any audience. It is a feature comedy. The vaudeville is very pleasing for the latter half of the week. Miss Maude Carbonette, as an English vocalist and comedian, is far above the average, and is taking many encores. Brown and Robinson are English character vocalists appearing as Cavaliers. Their offering is very pleasing and is of the very highest class. If you want to hear high-class singing, see this act today or tomorrow.

Majestic Theatre—"The Convict's Parole," a melodrama in which a kindly and progressive governor figures as the "god from the machine" to show up the evil deeds of grafting, villainous politicians and to make a good heroine and hero triumphant. It tells a good story, and will surely please the great body of spectators. "Jimmy's Misfortune" is a fine American drama. Jimmy is a newsboy with a crippled sister, who is saving up his pennies to buy her a rolling chair for Christmas, when he meets with an accident which lands him in the hospital. All his plans are not ruined, however, as a wealthy man becomes interested in him, and finally both Jimmy and his sister are made wonderfully happy. "The Craven," a Western drama of excellence. Defended by a brave wife, the cowardice of her husband is hidden. She sustains the honor of her family by shielding him from dishonor. "Flowers for the 400" an interesting, educational subject. "Mrs. Sims Serves on the Jury," a farce comedy that will prove laugh-provoking for sure. It is original and awfully funny. This well-selected programme of choice subjects will be shown today and tomorrow.

The Allen Players—Miss Verna Felton, leading lady with the Allen Players at the Victoria theatre, last night scored a very decided triumph on the occasion of the first change of bill of the company in their season of summer stock. She appeared in "The Third Degree" in the attractive part of Annie Jeffries, the wife of the young man whose parents and friends have forsaken him as he lies in prison convicted, through the iniquitous third degree method, of the murder of a friend in whose apartments he has been found with the body. The many unusual and dramatic situations in the part of Mrs. Jeffries, her consistent pleading before the great man of law, the Jeffries family lawyer that he take the case in the face of the opposition of the boy's parents, his final agreement through her persistence and the subsequent release situations. In these Miss Felton maintained an evenness of acting that was delightful to watch, and never did she lose the values of the part by overacting. Her quiet way of putting the simple yet forceful arguments to the legal mind caught the audience, who were with her in sympathy and shared her belief that the young husband was innocent. The final scene, where young Jeffries decides to leave his wife and where she, after her great sacrifices, is willing to efface herself for his personal benefit was so sad, as interpreted by Miss Felton, that there were many wet eyes in the audience. There was such a naturalness in the part that many in the theatre lived the scenes with her and were overjoyed when the young husband finally realized the meaning of the separation and decided to reject it. The audience then felt as much pleasure for the actress, and plainly showed it, as Miss Felton showed in her acting. The cast playing "The Third Degree" is even stronger than that which played the opening bill, "Eazy." Ralph Belmont's little part of Howard Jeffries was excellently done and never underdone, Irving Kennedy as Richard Brewster, made a most legal attorney, dry as parchment until he became enthusiastic, and then at once keen and enthused with the possibilities in the case. Miss Marie Thompson was a stately Mrs. Jeffries, sr., and every other member of the cast obtained the best from their parts and assisted in producing a well-balanced play. The Hungarian string orchestra again played delightful music. "The Third Degree" is to be produced tonight and Saturday night, with a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

Second Floor Suggestions

Hearth Rugs make acceptable wedding gifts and get away from the common run of presents. Pretty quilts, cushions, etc. are also very desirable in most new homes and table damask makes a happy thought. On our second floor—where few think of looking for wedding gift ideas—scores of gifts may be selected that will testify to the originality and thoughtfulness of the giver.

McLintock's Down Quilts, covered all silk or all satin, with or without frills, in beautiful shades of green, blue, grey, rose and mauve, filled with pure down, from $50 to $20.00

Down Cushions, silk covered, trimmed with cord and with metallic applique, wide range of prices.

Immense variety of Hearthrugs in Persian, Turkish, Indian and floral designs of Wilton, Axminster and velvet. Pretty washable bath mats in blue and white and green and white. Best quality of Irish Table Damask in any lengths required.

Those who are furnishing new homes this month should take advantage of the free advice of our expert decorators.

Sensible Gifts of Kitchenware

The average new bride will be truly pleased with a gift selected from the new arrivals in high-class aluminum kitchenware to be found on our first floor. Straight saucepans and lipped saucepans, 1 pint to 6 quart sizes, frying pans, 9¼ in. to 10¼ in., preserving kettles in 7 sizes from 4 quarts to 14 quarts.

The suggestions offered here are necessarily very meagre and incomplete. We welcome requests for original suggestions for gift selection and those seeking such will meet with every courtesy here.

EMPRESS OF CHINA SOLD

Japanese Copper and Iron Dealer Will Scrap the One-Time Pride of Transpacific Steamship Service

UNDERWRITERS SELL WRECK FOR $65,500

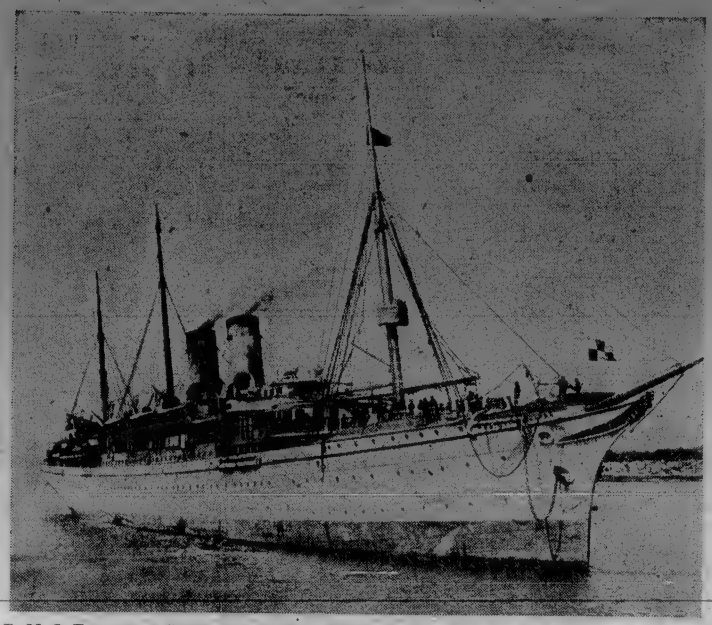

Shipowners of Japan and England Made Bids, but Junk Man's Offer Was the Highest, and He Got Vessel

The steamer Empress of China, which, until July 26 last, when she went ashore on Shirahama reef when nearing Yokohama, ran across the Pacific from Victoria and Vancouver for the Canadian Pacific Railroad company from 1891 without missing a trip, is to be scrapped for the metal and other material, having been bought from the underwriters by Sassao Shojiro, a copper and iron dealer of Yokohama, for $65,500. A number of bidders sought to purchase the steamer, including both foreign firms and Japanese shipowners, the highest price offered by the shipowners being $60,000. It was estimated that between $150,000 and $200,000 was required to prepare the vessel for sea.

The Empress of China passed out of the hands of the C.P.R. soon after she was floated by the underwriters, a special representative of the Liverpool Salvage association being sent from the United Kingdom to superintend the work, which was carried out by the Mitsui Bishi Dock company, of Nagasaki, a long channel having to be blasted to float the steamer. The C. P. R. claimed for a constructive total loss, and a settlement of the insurance claim was made by the underwriters when they offered the steamer for sale. The bids made were considered unsatisfactory, and it was reported that arrangements would be made to temporarily repair the vessel and send her to Liverpool for repairs, but this plan has been abandoned, and the liner is to be broken up.

The C. P. R. will replace the lost liner with the new Empress of Asia, a steamer about twice her size, which will be ready for service next February, being now under construction at the yards of the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering company on the Clyde, together with a sister liner, the Empress of Russia. The Empress of China, with her two sister steamers, the Empress of Japan and Empress of India, was built by the Naval Construction and Armament company at Barrow-in-Furness, being 485 feet long, 51 feet beam and 36 feet deep, with gross tonnage of 5700 tons.

When the Empress of China and her sister vessels came to the transpacific trade it was offering business for but a small proportion of the fleet which now plies across this ocean. Frank Upton's Oriental line, which plied to Victoria and the Columbia river, was then in operation with the steamers Zambesi, Batavia and Sussex, the Batavia afterwards becoming the Northern Pacific liner Tacoma, which was seized by the Japanese as a carrier of contraband during the Russo-Japanese war. The C. P. R. operated the Abyssinia, afterwards lost in the Atlantic, and the Danube, now the Salvor, of the B. C. Salvage company.

R. M. S. Empress of China, which will be broken up for junk by Japanese metal dealer.

B. C. LUMBERMEN MAKE OBJECTIONS

Said to Be Leading Movement Resisting Granting of Free Passage of Panama to U. S. Coasters

From present indications, Canadian shipping interests will resist to the utmost the granting of free passage through the Panama canal to American vessels in the coastwise trade, says Shipping Illustrated. The agitation is led by the lumbermen of British Columbia who wish to avail themselves of the Atlantic Coast market, in competition with Oregon and Washington, backed up by eastern Canadians anxious to compete with American manufactured goods on the Pacific Coast of Canada. It is acknowledged that Canada holds a trump card with the control of the Welland canal and a convention between the Dominion and the United States for reciprocity in the matter of the use of the national waterways is by no means improbable. In the meantime, a large section of the shipping trade sees in the forthcoming approach of the Panama canal opening a serious factor of reaction against the present era of prosperity in shipping. So far, it is said, people's minds have been fixed on the great saving of distance which will result from the use of the canal, but at the same time the reduction means a corresponding increase in the tonnage of the world, which would consequently tend to augment the supply. In addition to this a large number of shipping companies will add new vessels to their fleets with a view to accommodating the traffic which will come through the canal, which will further tend to depress shipping generally. A similar state of things obtained in the Far East after the opening of the Suez canal and it cannot be concealed that while oceanic canals are fine things for shortening distances, they may prove a serious drawback to shipowners generally.

For West Coast

SECOND VESSEL FOR AUSTRALIA'S NAVY

Melbourne Launched at Birkenhead—Plans of the Commonwealth for Naval Squadron

The second class protected cruiser Melbourne, which has just been launched at Birkenhead for the Australian navy, is the second vessel of the Australian squadron, the first being the battle cruiser Australia, which was launched last October and will be completed in September. The Melbourne is a vessel of practically the same type as the Chatham, Dublin, and Southampton, now building for the British fleet, and will be 430 ft. long, 49 ft. 10 in. in beam, and will displace 5,400 tons at a draught of 15 ft. 9 in. The principal armament will consist of eight 6 in. guns and two 21 in. torpedo tubes, and turbine machinery of 25,000-horse-power is calculated to give a speed of 25.5 knots. The contract date for delivery is August 7, 1912, but the prospects of completing the ship by then are not very hopeful.

The Melbourne is one of the three protected cruisers provided for in the Australian unit of what was to have been the new Pacific fleet, the organization of which has now been upset by the consent of New Zealand to the retention of the battle cruiser New Zealand in the North Sea. The Australian unit consists of the battle cruiser Australia, completing at Clydebank; the protected cruiser Sydney, building at Glasgow; the Brisbane, building at Sydney and the Melbourne; six destroyers, of which the Parramatta, Yarra, and Warrego are in service, and two submarines of the improved C class building at Barrow.

The report of Admiral Sir Reginald Henderson recommended the construction between 1911 and 1933 of eight battle cruiser, ten protected cruisers, eighteen destroyers, twelve submarines, and a number of auxiliary ships, at a total cost of £23,000,000. The report, so far as it concerns shipbuilding, has not been officially adopted, but a good start has been made. The following is a summary of the work now in hand or already completed:

Ship	Condition. To be be completed.
Australia	Launched Oct. 25, Sept., 1912
(Battle cruiser)	1911
Melbourne	Aug., 1912
Sydney—Building	Aug., 1912
Brisbane—Building
(Protected Cruisers)
Yarra—Completed
Parramatta—Completed
Warrego—Completed
(Destroyers)
Submarine A E No. 1., Building	Dec. 1912
Submarine A E No 2, Building	Jan., 1913

The whole of the material for the Brisbane is being constructed in the United Kingdom and sent to Sydney for assembling. The dates of completion given above are contract dates, which are unlikely to be followed except in the case of the submarines.

WILL BRING SETTLERS TO PACIFIC COAST

Capt. Robert Dollar Back From Panama Tells of Great Benefits From New Waterway

Captain Robert Dollar, head of the Dollar line of steamers, who has returned from a visit to Panama, says the North Pacific coast will benefit to a vast extent as a result of the opening of the canal next year. He said one of the first direct benefits will be immigration to fill up our vacant lands and increase our manufactures, which we so much need. The immigrant rates to this coast will only be slightly in excess of the present rate to New York, so we should receive a large number who would otherwise go to New York.

"As to the importance of the canal on commerce, when we consider that during the lives of you young men the Pacific ocean will be the great centre of the world's activities in shipping and commerce. Just as the centre of commerce changed from the Mediterranean to the Atlantic, so sure will that centre change from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

"The cost of fuel is an important matter, and our government proposes to monopolize the trade of the Isthmus by selling all coal and stores of every kind, even to running a laundry, dry docking, ship repairing, etc.

"A good deal will depend upon to what extent the Suez canal will reduce the tolls. Two reductions have been made in the past year. The present rate, is $1.30. We do not know what the Panama tolls will be, but it is proposed to give the president authority to fix the tolls, the maximum to be $1.25. The amount will ultimately be determined by ordinary trade competition.

"That the canal will be an international benefaction is conceded, but it is a misfortune to our country that our unwise laws prohibit us from using it with American vessels in the foreign trade. As it is a fact that we have no large cargo steamers available and none are being built to engage in the foreign trade, our commercial competitors are making preparations to take full advantage of the situation when the proper time comes for ships to engage in the foreign trade.

"The Hay-Pauncefote treaty in honor and justice, we must carry out, both in letter and spirit. Among other things, it provides that in the levying of tolls we will treat all ships alike, and there shall be no discrimination against any nation or its citizens or subjects in respect to the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise.

"As to our charging our American ships engaged in the foreign trade the same tolls as all the ships of other nations, there can be no question, and it must be done, as we have agreed to do it, and I think that part of the subject should end right here. But our ships engaged in the coastwise trade carrying passengers and freight from one American port to another is an entirely different proposition."

WHALER KIT GOES TO ARCTIC OCEAN

Vessel Brought From Vladivostock to Seek United States Register Starts on Northward Cruise

The Norwegian whaling steamer Kit, which reached Seattle a month ago from Vladivostok and has since been lying idle at the Sound port, has left there for the Arctic. The Kit is under orders to remain in northern waters until she secures a full cargo of whale oil and other products of the ocean mammals, and then return to Seattle. Efforts to place the Kit under American registry have not been successful to date and she will hunt outside of the three-mile limit from the Alaskan coast; but her owners hope that by the time she returns, in three or four months, congress will have approved the plan of entering her under American registry and giving her a trial as an ice-breaker to carry mail from Unalaska to Nome next winter.

The Kit is owned by Christian Christiansen, father of Lars Christiansen, the so-called whaling king of Sandefjord, Norway. She came to Seattle from Vladivostok, via Hakodate, arriving there May 16. The vessel is a combined whale hunter and floating whaling station, having machinery aboard for extracting the oils and other valuable products from the Whales.

A bill was introduced in congress last winter to give the Kit American registry, but some question arose over the abilities of the vessel as an ice breaker, or the possibility of her bucking through the ice to Nome in the winter season, and the bill is still being held up.

SHIPPING DISASTER

Boat Swamped Off Saghalien Coast When Landing Passengers From Japanese Vessel

Advices from the Orient tell of a shipping disaster off the the Saghalien coast on June 2, as a result of which 21 passengers were drowned. The steamer Tsuruga Maru arrived at Shikika, on the east coast, and a boat carrying 35 passengers from the ship left for land. As the boat approached the mouth of the river Horomai it met a strong wind and upset. Of 35 passengers 21 were drowned.

SPOKANE HERE ON FIRST TRIP

Excursion Steamer Spent Five Hours at Outer Wharf Yesterday—Had Full Complement of Passengers

About 150 tourists assembled from various parts of the United States spent five hours in Victoria yesterday morning when the steamer Spokane, Captain Zeh, of the Pacific Coast Steamship company, arrived on her first excursion trip this season to Alaskan ports.

The Spokane will visit the glaciers and many points of interest along the Alaskan coast, including Rudyard Fiord, a narrow inlet eleven miles long lined with high cliffs, which the Spokane visited last year, being the first large steamer to enter this channel. Every stateroom on the Spokane was occupied with round-trip travellers. The steamer has been practically sold out for the four other trips to be made this season.

This was the first visit of the Spokane to Victoria since she was wrecked last season as the result of striking a rock in Johnston strait. The steamer was beached at Plumper Bay and was raised by the B. C. Salvage company, which sent the steamer Salvor and a party of wreckers to the scene.

On Long Cruise

The naval training ship Tasei Maru with a new crew of student sailors and midshipmen started from Tokyo Bay on June 10, on a voyage of 42,200 miles, during which she will circle the globe. The training ship is expected to be absent 254 days. The first stop will be a Mexican port, and then the craft will proceed to St. Helena, Glasgow, Liverpool, London and home via the Suez.

For Prince Rupert

The steamer Prince Rupert of the G.T.P. left port yesterday morning en route to Prince Rupert, taking a good cargo and many passengers. Those booked from Victoria were: Misses Jenns, Mrs. Hunt and family, Mrs. Jenns, Mr. C. E. Hunt, Mr. A. T. Johnson, Mrs. N. Hughes, Mrs. J. Nutt, Messrs. M. A. Roby, A. Hull, T. P. Hull, W. Corperon, A. E. McMaster and R. R. Jeffrey.

Beckenham in Dock

The steamer Beckenham of the Canadian Mexican line reached Esquimalt yesterday morning to be hauled out in the drydock for an overhauling. The Watts Watts steamer has completed her charter to the Canadian Mexican line and comes to Esquimalt to refit in readiness to take up a time charter for the Cape Nome trade.

Royal on the Ways

The steamer Princess Royal, which struck a submerged log on the way from Granby and way ports, reached port yesterday and has been hauled out at the B. C. Marine ways for repairs. The stem of the steamer was damaged for about ten feet by the log.

Stock Markets and Financial News

POLITICS HAVE UPPER HAND

Wall Street Awaiting Definite News From Conventions—Russia's Reported Withdrawal From Chinese Loan

NEW YORK, June 20.—Political considerations obtruded themselves to the exclusion of all other matters in today's stock market. News from the conventions was too conflicting at the outset to stimulate the professional element to any degree of activity, but later when developments pointed to a possible solution of the more serious complications, the list broadened and became distinctly strong. Towards the end the market drifted into a state of dullness, with resultant recessions from the top, but the closing favored the bull account.

One of the most important subsidiaries of the steel corporation announced its intention to suspend all operations until the strikers meet the company's demands. Crop news was favorable, the weekly summary of a leading authority stating that from present indications, the yield of spring wheat is likely to offset the loss in the winter crop. Conditions with regard to corn and oats also showed marked improvements following recent rains.

The most interesting news from abroad converged around the Chinese loan and Russia's reported break with the powers whose bankers were so active in the preliminary negotiations of that important financing. New York bankers were without later details but intimated they would take no part in the proceedings if Russia modified her present attitude.

The weekly statement of the Bank of England reported a slight decrease in the proportion of reserves to liability with a gain of $2,000,000 gold. There was a sharp recovery in Consols on rumors that $15,000,000 of the government sinking fund is to be used for redemption purposes.

Trading here in London stocks was insignificant with a slight balance of sales. In the way of local financing the quick syndicating of $40,000,000 Brooklyn Rapid Transit five per cent. notes, which were largely over-subscribed, continued to be one of the important features.

There was a fair distribution of bonds with prices ruling firm. Total sales, par value, $2,485,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

WHEAT MARKET

Booming of Prices on Winnipeg Exchange—Highest Point Reached Is 108¾

WINNIPEG, June 20.—On the wheat market there was an active demand for all grades following the opening which advanced by leaps until the highest point of the day, 108⅝, was reached, around which price it held fairly steady. An excellent export enquiry with shorts covering and all cash offerings held tight, were factors in the booming of the prices for the day. Continental cables were unchanged, while Liverpool opened ¾ to ⅞ cents higher and closed unchanged to ¼ lower with easier tone. Americans opened unchanged to ⅝ cents lower and gathered some strength nearing the close. Winnipeg options closed ⅞ to 1 cent higher after a range of 1 cent for the day. Minneapolis closed ⅛ to ⅜ cents higher. Chicago closed ⅝ to ¾ cents higher. Barley, which has been dull for a long time, suddenly sprang into prominence and cash barley closed 5 cents up for No. 4 and 2 cents up for No. 3. Oats were dull and closed fractionally lower. Flax was stronger, closing 1 cent up for July.

Receipts were very heavy, 586 cars being in sight for inspection. The high prices have increased receipts at country elevators materially in the last few days, but while farmers are shipping they do not seem to be selling freely.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE

Power Stock Rises to 212½ Which Is New High Level

MONTREAL, June 20.—Power indulged in another lusty celebrated flight this morning and was by long odds the big feature. It went to 212½ in the first hour. Considering that earlier in the week it sold at 207½, the advance is a good one.

The market possessed all the ear marks of shaping for a bulge and the street was not disappointed. From the first the tape was Power's race. This is a new high level for the stock, the previous high mark having been a small fraction under 210. Upwards of 2,000 shares changed hands in the first two hours, after which the demand slackened off. There is reported to be a shortage of stock in the street, which accounts for the sharpness of the advance.

ZIMMERKNIT

DEALERS: Just a word of warning. If you want prompt delivery you must order from your jobber early—at once, if possible. Otherwise stocks will very soon be exhausted.

HEALTH in hot weather depends very largely on the underwear you put on each morning.

Zimmerknit Underwear clothes the skin with a thin, airy wall of fabric as light as a feather, which readily absorbs perspiration and acts as a perfect ventilator and protector.

The yarn we use is long fibred and carefully combed before spinning. This increases its durability and makes it softer than silk.

EACH style of garment is woven to fit one particular style of figure. There are styles for short men, others for long men; styles for stout and thin men; all different.

All the staple colors—sizes and widths for men and boys—all at the same prices—50c., 75c. and $1.00.

THE BEST WHISKY SOLD in Canada, regardless of nativity, is the

Special Selected Whisky

of the Corby Distillery—pure—straight whisky—without artificial flavor or color—sold in bottles under Government seal.

The color of this whisky is the golden glow from years of mellowing in charred oak barrels—at an evenly warm temperature. The flavor is the natural, mild sweetness of ripe old grain. That fiery, harsh, smoky tasty of ordinary whisky is entirely absent.

At all leading hotels and liquor stored. 7W

Serviceable Coats for Girls Go at Less Than Half Price Today. Two Groups Only, $3.75 and $5.75

THE balance of our stock has been divided into two groups, regardless of their former prices, and marked at $3.75 or $5.75 for a rapid sale today.

Last week nearly 200 women purchased coats for their girls, and judging by their remarks, every one of them was delighted with her purchase. Why not buy a coat for your girl while the opportunity presents itself to make a very substantial saving?

At $5.75 there are some very smart Coats in shepherd's checks. They are all double-breasted styles and are trimmed with fancy buttons. The collars and turnback cuffs are inlaid with black silk piped with blue, or are finished with inlays of corded material in red.

Other fine styles are to be had in plain cream serge with sailor collars and hair line striped serge with neat collars and revers in contrasting materials. Plain cloths and serges in blue and reds are well represented, also a few neat greys and pongee coats.

At $3.75 Blue and Red Serge Coats in the sailor style, or finished with roll collars and revers predominate, but there are a few in other styles.

They come in sizes for girls from about 5 to 14 years old, and we don't expect such bargains to last very long, so shop early and avoid disappointment.
